U.S. Grand Jury Probe In Alabama Is Ordered

Birmingham Arrests Seen Rights Violation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers said today he has ordered a grand jury investigation of whether the recent arrest of Negro ministers in Birmingham, Ala., violated their civil rights.

Rogers said he did not know exactly how soon the grand jury will begin its work. He said that it will be as soon as possible.

The federal grand jury will be convened at Birmingham.

The incident the grand jury will investigate occurred Oct. 27 when three Negro ministers, all from Montgomery, were held for several hours by Birmingham police on vagrancy charges. They then were released and the charges dropped.

The ministers had been active in a campaign by Negroes against racial segregation on Montgomery buses.

The ministers were identified as the Rev. S. S. Seay, pastor of the AME Zion Church; the Rev. A. W. Wilson, pastor of the Holt St. Baptist Church, and the Rev. H. H. Hubbard, pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church.

Rogers told a news conference his call for a grand jury investigation followed the refusal of Eugene Connor, Birmingham's commissioner of public safety, to discuss the matter with FBI agents.

Rogers said Connor also had instructed members of the Birmingham Police Department not to discuss the case with FBI agents.

Rogers also announced the Jus-

Gallipolis Elks Club Building Lost in Fire

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—Fire destroyed the Davis-Shuler Department Store in downtown Gallipolis today, but was brought under control about 10 a.m., about four hours after it was discovered.

The building collapsed at 9:30 after firemen from five other communities were called in to fight the blaze.

Dean Davis, president of the firm which occupied the ground floor of the building, estimated the loss in fixtures and merchandise at $125,000, which he said was insured.

There was no estimate on the building itself, owned by the Elks Club which occupied the second and third floors.

Adjoining structures were fire-scarred, among them the Plaza Hotel which had to be evacuated, a jewelry store and smaller buildings.

Additional firemen were called from Jackson, Pomeroy and Middleport, Ohio, and the West Virginia towns of Huntington and Point Pleasant, across the Ohio River. Volunteers from Gallipolis State Hospital also helped.

The fire was discovered in the basement of the building by a watchman and soon after broke through to the first floor. Dean Davis, owner of the department store, said his stock would be an entire loss.

They're Bleeding For School Buses

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Houston School Board cut off free bus service to schools in some 20 areas and parents had to raise about $2,000 in each area to pay for the service.

Parents whose children go to the Oates Elementary School were unable to raise enough money.

So a mogher and two fathers donated blood to a blood bank for $20 a pint Wednesday. They were still $200 short of their goal.

Nixon 'Burned Up' By Stassen Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — Friends apparently are moving in to prevent Vice President Nixon from becoming something of a sitting duck for attacks by Republicans opposing his presidential ambitions.

Nixon took in obviously irritated silence Wednesday a fresh assault from an old foe, Harold E. Stassen, who tried unsuccessfully to dump the vice president from second place on the 1956 ticket.

Talking with newsmen at the White House, Stassen pointedly omitted the vice president's name from a list of four possibilities Stassen said could carry the GOP to victory in 1960.

Although Nixon did not comment, Secretary of Labor Mitchell did. Mitchell said Nixon "ought to be and will be the next President of the United States."

Stassen named Nelson A. Rockefeller, elected governor of New York; Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., defeated for Senate re-election in Massachusetts in 1952 and appointed ambassador to the United Nations; Secretary of Interior Seaton who deserted Stassen for Eisenhower in 1952; and Secretary of the Treasury Anderson, a former Texas Democrat now registered Republican.

Mitchell, who has been regarded as a possible aspirant for the 1960 vice presidential nomination, said "Mr. Stassen's views continue to reflect his unsuccessful vendetta against Vice President Nixon."

Friends described Nixon as burned up that Stassen got the opportunity to express his views in the White House lobby after a conference with President Eisenhower. The timing and nature of the attack make it difficult for the West Berliners Start to Relax

Red Bear Appears To Be Only Growling

BERLIN (AP) — West Berliners breathed more easily today because the Russian bear and its East German followers appeared for the moment—to have more growl than bite.

The tipoff came in a news conference Wednesday by Premier Otto Grotewhol of Communist East Germany. Several hundred correspondents attended.

Most of them expected some sort of a dramatic followup to Nikita Khrushchev's demand that the Western Allies give up West Berlin, a capitalistic thorn buried 110 miles inside Communist East Germany.

Many correspondents thought Grotewohl had been tipped by the Soviet premier to announce that the Russians were giving the East Germans control over Allied military traffic into West Berlin. The Allies prefer Russian control because this permits them to avoid recognizing the East German regime.

Grotewohl strode into the conference room 10 minutes late. He said he knew the correspondents expected something sensational but wouldn't get it from him.

What they got was nearly two hours of Communist verbiage about peace, German unification, the Berlin situation and the possibility of negotiations to get Soviet troops out of East Germany.

Throughout, Grotewohl gave the impression he may have received the word from Moscow. So when he mentioned negotiations about Soviet troops, the correspondents figured they had a sensation after all.

But six hours later the official Communist East German news agency ADN put out a correction which drastically changed Grotewohl's remarks about teh troop negotiations.

In response to a question on Khrushchev's speech, Grotewhol said: "Yes, I interpret the weekend speech of Khrushchev to mean that the Soviet Union will re-examine the question with the aim of pulling out its troops. Perhaps there would have to be a proviso that the Western Allies take the same step (in West Germany)."

Nixon Gives Talk from Dental Chair

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon made a stirring address on the American way of life to an audience of five Wednesday.

His platform was a dentist's chair.

Nixon, here for a vacation, was under anaesthesia to have a badly infected wisdom tooth removed. His dentists, Dr. Jack H. Beckwith and Dr. William Ashley, said the vice president's speech was nonpartisan.

After discussing Americanism, Nixon had high praise for his wife's courageous behavior when the two were mobbed by anti-American elements in Venezuela.

The vice president had told the dentists he didn't think the intravenous drug used on him would be effective.

After the extraction he said he knew "that stuff wouldn't work. Are you going to use some more of it?"

It was hard to convince him the tooth already was out.

Three nurses also attended Nixon. One, Mrs. Jay Thompson, a hitherto staunch Democrat, called him a "wonderful, charming man."

Asked if his charm affected her party loyalty, she said: "I'm wavering."

Missile Setup Said Adequate

Air Force General Cites 'Great Strides'

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP)—The Air Force chief at Cape Canaveral gave his assurance today that the nation's missile programs are advancing "steadily and adequately."

"The Air Force has made great strides toward the development of military capabilities which will assure us operational ballistic missiles in the near future and also extend our air superiority into space," Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates said in a speech prepared for delivery to The Associated Press Managing Editors Assn.

Gen. Yates, commander of Patrick Air Force Base at Cape Canaveral, reviewed the pressure resulting in relaxing the secrecy on Canaveral launchings and showed pictures of many of them.

He added: "It is already necessary to furnish the American public with so much information that we also provide the Soviets with a valuable insight into our progress — an insight, I might add, that we cannot possibly hope to get with respect to their activities."

Gen. Yates told the editors the Air Force hopes to push aircraft speeds up to 3,600 miles an hour and flight altitudes above 100 miles next year.

Samuel Lubell, syndicate political pollster, told the editors he believes Americans are losing faith in both major political parties.

"The balloting on Nov. 4 was not a vote of confidence in the Democratic party," Lubell said in a discussion on public opinion and the election. "It was more a vote of no confidence in the Republican party.

"It seems to me that we are moving into a period of increasing political instability. In the present mood of the public, landslide could follow landslide, with nothing really decisive happening.

International Harvester Hit By Walkout

CHICAGO (AP) — A strike of some 36,500 United Auto Workers Union employes today shut down International Harvester Co. plants throughout the nation.

Picket lines were reported orderly as the strike went off at 7 a.m., local time, in 15 plants.

Efforts to avert the walkout failed Wednesday night after federal mediators met with management and labor officials.

Picket lines were posted by the UAW at plants and parts depots in Fort Wayne and Indianapolis, Ind.; Springfield, Ohio; Memphis, Tenn.; Louisville, Ky.; Emeryville and Stockton, Calif., and Rock Island, East Moline, Canton, Rock Falls and Chicago, Ill. There were four plants struck in the Chicago area.

Unaffected by the strike were Harvester's New Orleans twine mill, a Columbus, Ohio, parts depot, and units at Milwaukee and Waukesha, Wis.

Union and management representatives planned another session today.

The UAW gave the go-ahead for the strike after the company rejected a union package proposal for a new contract to replace the one which expired Aug. 1. Since that date UAW members have continued to work under an extension of the old contract.

Duane Greathouse, UAW vice president and director of its agricultural implements division, said Harvester had rejected union demands for a contract similar to that granted in the auto industry. Specific union demands have not been spelled out.

A Harvester spokesman said the principal stumbling blocks are union insistence on retroactivity to Aug. 23 of any new agreement conditions and inclusion of employes in company parts depots and transfer houses.

The company, he said, insists on dealing locally with nonproduction employes in such depots.

New England Girl Plans Trek To Help Natives in Viet Nam

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A slim, blue-eyed New England girl plans to ride muleback into mountainous South Viet Nam and find some tribe that has no written language.

There, a few miles from the Communist North, she'll spend 10 to 15 years making a phonetic translation of the New Testament and helping the natives establish a church.

"We feel that since the Lord seems to be leading us into it, He'll take care of us," says brunette Jean Donaldson, 26.

She and a still unselected girl companion will be sponsored by Wycliffe Bible Translators. This interdenominational group, with headquarters in nearby Glendale and 800 field workers around the world, has translated the New Testament into nearly 150 tribal languages.

In high school at Exeter, N.H., where she is still a member of the First Baptist church, Jean began thinking about missionary work.

In 1950-54 she was a staff sergeant in photography at Shaw Air Force Base, S.C. She prayed about her decision while earning a B.A. at Westmont College, Santa Barbara, Calif.

"I felt I'd like to go to a place which had no one to tell them of the Lord," she said. "There are Christian Missionary Alliance workers in Viet Nam but over 21 tribes without the Gospel."

"I imagine it will take 10 to 15 years before you get a strong church in one tribe," she said. "When I finish with one, I plan to go on to another."

5 Little Rock School Board Members Quit

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Five members of the embattled Little Rock School Board resigned Wednesday night to clear the way for a quicker solution to the impasse in the integration situation here.

The mass resignation, subject of widespread rumor for the past several days, came as no surprise.

Before the resignations, the board paid off the contract of School Supt. Virgil T. Blossom, frequent target of segregationists and Gov. Orval E. Faubus as the author of the Little Rock plan of gradual integration.

Amis Guthridge, an attorney and member of the pro-segregation Capital Citizens Council, said he would file a suit seeking to block the action on Blossom's contract.

"That is a clear piece of collusion between the board and Virgil Blossom, who has always dominated that board," Guthridge said.

All six positions will be open in the Dec. 6 school elections since Alford's term is expiring and as a congressman-elect he will not seek another term.

Pulaski County Judge Arch Campbell is expected to appoint an interim board to serve until after the election.

In a joint statement, the five pointed out that the resignations would not relieve the new board of obligations to comply with federal court integration orders.

The statement said, however, that the move would give voters in the Dec. 6 election "their first opportunity to express a clear cut choice as to whether we have public schools in Little Rock or not."

Nine Negroes attended Central last year under protection of federal troops, but this fall Faubus closed the high schools rather than have them integrated when the U.S. Supreme Court refused a delay.

Alford staged a one-man battle to head off termination of Blossom's contract and a resulting resolution to pay him $19,741 for the remaining 19 months of the pact.

Alford, who gathered enough popular support from his anti-integration statements to enable him to defeat Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark) in a one-week write-in campaign, drew a sharp rebuke from Cooper for his objections to paying Blossom off.

"He's our responsibility," Cooper said. "It would be ungentlemanly to do otherwise."

Blossom, who became school superintendent in 1953, will serve until Nov. 30. He said he has no plans for another job.

Methodist Church To Study Rural, Urban Problems

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Methodist Church will hold a "town and country" conference at Wichita, Kans., next July 21-24.

The conference will consider the interdependance and problems of rural and urban churches.

Announcement of the dates and site came Wednesday at the semi-annual conference here of the church's council of bishops. Approximately 50 bishops are attending the meeting.

The council also heard reports of the church's higher Christian education program. The reports said 550,000 Methodist young people now are attending American colleges and universities and that investments during 1957-58 in the Methodist - related schools have amounted to $930,407,932. That is an increase of $119,000,000 over the previous year.

Red Feather Drive on the Ropes

Can We Afford To Fail?

If you have not made a contribution to the Community Chest, or if you have and feel you would like to make another, turn on your porch light tonight. A Boy Scout will come to your door and get whatever you want to give and take it to headquarters.

The porch light campaign was arranged by Chest directors when it appeared certain last week that the regular campaign would fall short of the $23,750 goal by between $3,000 and $4,000.

At the checkup Wednesday, the campaign was still about 15 per cent short of the goal. That means that, unless the efforts of the next few days are successful, the 10 organizations depending on the Chest for funds to carry on their programs next year will suffer.

* * *

TWELVE ROUTES have been laid out in the city. A car driven by a Red Feather worker will take two Scouts over each route between 7 and 8 p. m. tonight. The Scouts will call at the homes where porch lights are burning.

They hope to complete the campaign tours within the hour, the Chest directors suggested that the light be left on a little longer if there is no call by 8 o'clock.

Another phase of the "extra" campaign is still under way. Six volunteer solicitors started out Wednesday to call on places of business which had reduced their contributions this year or had given only as much as they did last year. These will be asked to give a little more.

At the start, a list of 110 of these had been made out but there were not enough volunteers to take all of them. Perse Harlow, executive secretary of the Community Chest, said at least four more solicitors are needed.

The first volunteer to report, turned in six cards and they averaged $10 each.

Chest directors said they hope this "extra" solicitation can be wound up this week—successfully.

Commenting on the importance of filling the Chest, Harlow asked: Who would want these organizations to have to curtail their activities?"

On the basis of what they did last year, Harlow pointed out what the Community Chest means: a program for 375 Boy and Cub Scouts and more than 325 Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds; a bag of candy for 1,600 youngsters from Santa Claus; fun for hundreds at the Fourth of July and Halloween celebrations; pleasure for more hundreds who use the public Community Park; blood for hundreds from the Red Cross blood bank; help given service personnel through the Red Cross; help for more than 250 from the Salvation Army; a "home away from home" through the United Service Organization; activities for more than 200 high school girls in Y-Teen clubs.

7 Children Die in Fire In Ft. Wayne

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Seven young children ranging in age from 7 weeks to 11 years died today when an explosion and fire roared through a frame house in the southwest part of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gammons managed to get out of the six-room dewlling, then ran back and hurled an eighth youngster, 4-year-old Connie, to safety through a window.

The frantic parents tried to save their other children but were forced to flee again by leaping flames and thick smoke pouring through their home.

Flames were shooting 40 feet into the air when firemen arrived, and it was some time before they could force their way inside.

Found lying in their beds, apparently overcome by smoke as they slept, were the bodies of George, 11; Chester, 9; Irene, 7; Alvis, 5; John, 3; Carolyn, 1 and Georgia Ann, 7 weeks.

Firemen said the explosion may have occurred near the oil furnace. Oil spurting from severed lines fed the flames.

Argentine Chieftain Crushes Coup; Oil Strike Postponed

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — President Arturo Frondizi crushed an attempted palace coup Wednesday night and oil workers ostponed a nationwide strike.

The threatened strike had sparked the political crisis. The oil workers are opposing a government plan to get foreign help in developing Argentina's nationalized oil industry.

The coup was led by Vice President Alejandro Gomez, according to official reports. He denied it. Deputies and senators of the ruling intransigent radical party early today called for his resignation. His impeachment by Congress was threatened.

As Frondizi struggled to solve the labor unrest which has caused a crisis endangering his 6-month-old regime, Argentina's powerful armed forces rallied to support the embattled chief executive.

Gomez, a tough politician, had claimed military and political support for a move to form a national coalition movement.

Frondizi, weakened by a bout with flu but buoyed by a swift vote of confidence from his military forces, ordered his ministers to make a supreme effort to settle a strike of oil workers in Mendoza Province.

This strike, which started two weeks ago, is paralyzing the rich oilfields in Mendoza at the foot of the Andes Mountains.

Frondizi called the Mendoza strike a Communist-inspired insurrection and declared Argentina under a state of siege Tuesday. Hundreds of Communists, Peronistas and others were arrested.

Frondizi crushed the coup with the support of the secretaries of the army, navy and air force, and surrounded the government palace with armed guards.

His administration gained a breathing spell when the oil workers at 2 a.m. put off for 96 hours their 48-hour nationwide strike which was to start last midnight.

Labor bosses agreed to huddle again with Interior Minister Alfredo Vitolo who played a key role in putting down the Gomez attempt and keeping Frondizi on top.

Girl, 15, Claims She Asked Killer To Spare Young Pair

"He told me to shut up," she recalled.

Caril's first-hand account of part of the Starkweather killing spree was delivered Wednesday to a jury hearing the 15-year-old brunette's trial for murder.

She is charged with aiding and abetting Starkweather in the slaying of Bennet, Neb., schoolboy Robert Jensen last Jan. 27. Starkweather is under death sentence for the killing.

Caril told the jurors she expected at any time to become one of Starkweather's victims.

She wanted to get away from Starkweather, she said. But "he always told me if I ever got loose my family would be killed."

Caril's mother, stepfather and half sister already had been killed by Starkweather.

Caril told how the Bennet teenagers were flagged down on a road and how Starkweather forced Jensen at gunpoint to drive to the storm cave.

She said that at Starkweather's command, she pointed a shotgun at Miss King and told her to get out of the car. In a low voice so Starkweather wouldn't hear she said she told the girl "You better get out so you won't get hurt."

"I asked him again not to hurt them," Caril said. "He told me to shut up."

As Starkweather and the Bennet couple walked away into the darkness, "I just sat there scared stiff."

Minutes later she heard shots.

"Why didn't you run away?" asked defense lawyer John McArthur.

"I couldn't move after I heard the shots. . . . I was froze stiff."

Air Force General Cites 'Great Strides'

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP)—The Air Force chief at Cape Canaveral gave his assurance today that the nation's missile programs are advancing "steadily and adequately."

"The Air Force has made great strides toward the development of military capabilities which will assure us operational ballistic missiles in the near future and also extend our air superiority into space," Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates said in a speech prepared for delivery to The Associated Press Managing Editors Assn.

Gen. Yates, commander of Patrick Air Force Base at Cape Canaveral, reviewed the pressure resulting in relaxing the secrecy on Canaveral launchings and showed pictures of many of them.

He added: "It is already necessary to furnish the American public with so much information that we also provide the Soviets with a valuable insight into our progress — an insight, I might add, that we cannot possibly hope to get with respect to their activities."

Gen. Yates told the editors the Air Force hopes to push aircraft speeds up to 3,600 miles an hour and flight altitudes above 100 miles next year.

Samuel Lubell, syndicate political pollster, told the editors he believes Americans are losing faith in both major political parties.

"The balloting on Nov. 4 was not a vote of confidence in the Democratic party," Lubell said in a discussion on public opinion and the election. "It was more a vote of no confidence in the Republican party.

"It seems to me that we are moving into a period of increasing political instability. In the present mood of the public, landslide could follow landslide, with nothing really decisive happening.

International Harvester Hit By Walkout

CHICAGO (AP) — A strike of some 36,500 United Auto Workers Union employes today shut down International Harvester Co. plants throughout the nation.

Picket lines were reported orderly as the strike went off at 7 a.m., local time, in 15 plants.

Efforts to avert the walkout failed Wednesday night after federal mediators met with management and labor officials.

Picket lines were posted by the UAW at plants and parts depots in Fort Wayne and Indianapolis, Ind.; Springfield, Ohio; Memphis, Tenn.; Louisville, Ky.; Emeryville and Stockton, Calif., and Rock Island, East Moline, Canton, Rock Falls and Chicago, Ill. There were four plants struck in the Chicago area.

Unaffected by the strike were Harvester's New Orleans twine mill, a Columbus, Ohio, parts depot, and units at Milwaukee and Waukesha, Wis.

Union and management representatives planned another session today.

The UAW gave the go-ahead for the strike after the company rejected a union package proposal for a new contract to replace the one which expired Aug. 1. Since that date UAW members have continued to work under an extension of the old contract.

Duane Greathouse, UAW vice president and director of its agricultural implements division, said Harvester had rejected union demands for a contract similar to that granted in the auto industry. Specific union demands have not been spelled out.

A Harvester spokesman said the principal stumbling blocks are union insistence on retroactivity to Aug. 23 of any new agreement conditions and inclusion of employes in company parts depots and transfer houses.

The company, he said, insists on dealing locally with nonproduction employes in such depots.

5 Little Rock School Board Members Quit

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Five members of the embattled Little Rock School Board resigned Wednesday night to clear the way for a quicker solution to the impasse in the integration situation here.

The mass resignation, subject of widespread rumor for the past several days, came as no surprise.

Amis Guthridge, an attorney and member of the pro-segregation Capital Citizens Council, said he would file a suit seeking to block the action on Blossom's contract.

"That is a clear piece of collusion between the board and Virgil Blossom, who has always dominated that board," Guthridge said.

All six positions will be open in the Dec. 6 school elections since Alford's term is expiring and as a congressman-elect he will not seek another term.

Pulaski County Judge Arch Campbell is expected to appoint an interim board to serve until after the election.

In a joint statement, the five pointed out that the resignations would not relieve the new board of obligations to comply with federal court integration orders.

The statement said, however, that the move would give voters in the Dec. 6 election "their first opportunity to express a clear cut choice as to whether we have public schools in Little Rock or not."

Nine Negroes attended Central last year under protection of federal troops, but this fall Faubus closed the high schools rather than have them integrated when the U.S. Supreme Court refused a delay.

Alford staged a one-man battle to head off termination of Blossom's contract and a resulting resolution to pay him $19,741 for the remaining 19 months of the pact.

Alford, who gathered enough popular support from his anti-integration statements to enable him to defeat Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark) in a one-week write-in campaign, drew a sharp rebuke from Cooper for his objections to paying Blossom off.

"He's our responsibility," Cooper said. "It would be ungentlemanly to do otherwise."

Blossom, who became school superintendent in 1953, will serve until Nov. 30. He said he has no plans for another job.

Methodist Church To Study Rural, Urban Problems

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Methodist Church will hold a "town and country" conference at Wichita, Kans., next July 21-24.

The conference will consider the interdependance and problems of rural and urban churches.

Announcement of the dates and site came Wednesday at the semi-annual conference here of the church's council of bishops. Approximately 50 bishops are attending the meeting.

The council also heard reports of the church's higher Christian education program. The reports said 550,000 Methodist young people now are attending American colleges and universities and that investments during 1957-58 in the Methodist - related schools have amounted to $930,407,932. That is an increase of $119,000,000 over the previous year.

Red Feather Drive on the Ropes

Can We Afford To Fail?

If you have not made a contribution to the Community Chest, or if you have and feel you would like to make another, turn on your porch light tonight. A Boy Scout will come to your door and get whatever you want to give and take it to headquarters.

The porch light campaign was arranged by Chest directors when it appeared certain last week that the regular campaign would fall short of the $23,750 goal by between $3,000 and $4,000.

At the checkup Wednesday, the campaign was still about 15 per cent short of the goal. That means that, unless the efforts of the next few days are successful, the 10 organizations depending on the Chest for funds to carry on their programs next year will suffer.

* * *

TWELVE ROUTES have been laid out in the city. A car driven by a Red Feather worker will take two Scouts over each route between 7 and 8 p. m. tonight. The Scouts will call at the homes where porch lights are burning.

They hope to complete the campaign tours within the hour, the Chest directors suggested that the light be left on a little longer if there is no call by 8 o'clock.

Another phase of the "extra" campaign is still under way. Six volunteer solicitors started out Wednesday to call on places of business which had reduced their contributions this year or had given only as much as they did last year. These will be asked to give a little more.

At the start, a list of 110 of these had been made out but there were not enough volunteers to take all of them. Perse Harlow, executive secretary of the Community Chest, said at least four more solicitors are needed.

The first volunteer to report, turned in six cards and they averaged $10 each.

Chest directors said they hope this "extra" solicitation can be wound up this week—successfully.

Commenting on the importance of filling the Chest, Harlow asked: Who would want these organizations to have to curtail their activities?"

On the basis of what they did last year, Harlow pointed out what the Community Chest means: a program for 375 Boy and Cub Scouts and more than 325 Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds; a bag of candy for 1,600 youngsters from Santa Claus; fun for hundreds at the Fourth of July and Halloween celebrations; pleasure for more hundreds who use the public Community Park; blood for hundreds from the Red Cross blood bank; help given service personnel through the Red Cross; help for more than 250 from the Salvation Army; a "home away from home" through the United Service Organization; activities for more than 200 high school girls in Y-Teen clubs.

7 Children Die in Fire In Ft. Wayne

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Seven young children ranging in age from 7 weeks to 11 years died today when an explosion and fire roared through a frame house in the southwest part of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gammons managed to get out of the six-room dewlling, then ran back and hurled an eighth youngster, 4-year-old Connie, to safety through a window.

The frantic parents tried to save their other children but were forced to flee again by leaping flames and thick smoke pouring through their home.

Flames were shooting 40 feet into the air when firemen arrived, and it was some time before they could force their way inside.

Found lying in their beds, apparently overcome by smoke as they slept, were the bodies of George, 11; Chester, 9; Irene, 7; Alvis, 5; John, 3; Carolyn, 1 and Georgia Ann, 7 weeks.

Firemen said the explosion may have occurred near the oil furnace. Oil spurting from severed lines fed the flames.

Argentine Chieftain Crushes Coup; Oil Strike Postponed

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — President Arturo Frondizi crushed an attempted palace coup Wednesday night and oil workers postponed a nationwide strike.

The threatened strike had sparked the political crisis. The oil workers are opposing a government plan to get foreign help in developing Argentina's nationalized oil industry.

The coup was led by Vice President Alejandro Gomez, according to official reports. He denied it. Deputies and senators of the ruling intransigent radical party early today called for his resignation. His impeachment by Congress was threatened.

As Frondizi struggled to solve the labor unrest which has caused a crisis endangering his 6-month-old regime, Argentina's powerful armed forces rallied to support the embattled chief executive.

Gomez, a tough politician, had claimed military and political support for a move to form a national coalition movement.

Frondizi, weakened by a bout with flu but buoyed by a swift vote of confidence from his military forces, ordered his ministers to make a supreme effort to settle a strike of oil workers in Mendoza Province.

This strike, which started two weeks ago, is paralyzing the rich oilfields in Mendoza at the foot of the Andes Mountains.

Frondizi called the Mendoza strike a Communist-inspired insurrection and declared Argentina under a state of siege Tuesday. Hundreds of Communists, Peronistas and others were arrested.

Frondizi crushed the coup with the support of the secretaries of the army, navy and air force, and surrounded the government palace with armed guards.

His administration gained a breathing spell when the oil workers at 2 a.m. put off for 96 hours their 48-hour nationwide strike which was to start last midnight.

Labor bosses agreed to huddle again with Interior Minister Alfredo Vitolo who played a key role in putting down the Gomez attempt and keeping Frondizi on top.

Girl, 15, Claims She Asked Killer To Spare Young Pair

"He told me to shut up," she recalled.

Caril's first-hand account of part of the Starkweather killing spree was delivered Wednesday to a jury hearing the 15-year-old brunette's trial for murder.

She is charged with aiding and abetting Starkweather in the slaying of Bennet, Neb., schoolboy Robert Jensen last Jan. 27. Starkweather is under death sentence for the killing.

Caril told the jurors she expected at any time to become one of Starkweather's victims.

She wanted to get away from Starkweather, she said. But "he always told me if I ever got loose my family would be killed."

Caril's mother, stepfather and half sister already had been killed by Starkweather.

Caril told how the Bennet teenagers were flagged down on a road and how Starkweather forced Jensen at gunpoint to drive to the storm cave.

She said that at Starkweather's command, she pointed a shotgun at Miss King and told her to get out of the car. In a low voice so Starkweather wouldn't hear she said she told the girl "You better get out so you won't get hurt."

"I asked him again not to hurt them," Caril said. "He told me to shut up."

As Starkweather and the Bennet couple walked away into the darkness, "I just sat there scared stiff."

Minutes later she heard shots.

"Why didn't you run away?" asked defense lawyer John McArthur.

Carpenters Expected To Abandon AFL

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Delegates to the convention of the Brotherhood of Carpenters & Joiners, world's largest craft union, were expected to authorize union leaders today to withdraw from the AFL-CIO.

Up for action was a resolution giving the general executive board power to sever the 839,000-member union's ties with the AFL-CIO.

Some 1,200 of the convention's 2,000 delegates have signified their approval by signing copies of the measure.

Such action would be a powerful endorsement of Maurice A. Hutcheson, general president of the union. Hutcheson is under indictment in Indiana's highway scandals and has been under fire by the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

The AFL-CIO Executive Council has notified Hutcheson it wants to question him about corruption charges made against him by the Senate committee. Last week Hutcheson advised the council he could not appear at the time because of convention preliminaries.

As the convention opened, Hutcheson mailed to the council a copy of his statement to convention delegates. In it Hutcheson denied any misconduct, including charges he conspired to bribe an Indiana right-of-way official.

In Washington, AFL-CIO sources had no comment on the Carpenters resolution.

Hutcheson, who succeeded his father, the late "Big Bill" Hutcheson as president of the union in in 1952, was re-elected to the $35,000-a-year job Wednesday without opposition.

Handless Workman Shunned by Jury, To Seek New Trial

CLEVELAND (AP) — Attorneys for a 45-year-old workman who lost his hands in an industrial accident want his $500,000 damage suit tried again.

A jury ruled against Henry Joseph Degonia of Granite City, Ill. in U.S. District Court Wednesday. He had sued Federal Machine & Welder Co. of Warren, manufacturers of a hydraulic press in which Degonia's hands were crushed. They were later amputated. The suit charged negligence and carelessness on the company's part.

Degonia's employer, the A. O. Smith Co. of Granit City, was dismissed as a defendent in the suit.

Counsel for the plaintiff said a new trial will be sought. If that fails the decision will be appealed to a higher court.

Grand Jury Probe

tice Department is considering recommending to Congress the enactment of new civil rights legislation, some of it bearing on the school desegregation controversy.

Rogers said, however, that no conclusions have been reached.

"We hope that anything that we will recommend will be actually helpful," Rogers commented.

Legislation under consideration, Rogers said, touches on recent bombings of synagogues and schools.

Rogers' announcement focused further on Alabama the current federal action in the civil rights field.

Wednesday the Civil Rights Commission announced plans for an open hearing at Montgomery, Ala., beginning Dec. 8 on alleged denial of voting rights to Negroes.

This could lead to a clash between the state and the commission since the commission said it would subpoena all the witnesses and records it needed.

But Atty. Gen. John Patterson, Alabama's governor-elect, has told the state's vote registrars they do not have to turn over registration records to defral representatives. Patterson has added he will resist any move by the commission to get the records.

The hearing will be the first held by the new commission, which announced plans for it and other activities after a closed meeting here Wednesday.

For some time, the commission has been checking charges that registrars in Alabama's Macon County have kept Negroes from voting. Last Oct. 20, the commission demanded records from the county's Voter Registration Board. The board, following Patterson's advice, refused.

It is this refusal that prompted the commission to set up the Montgomery hearing. More than Macon County, however, may be considered. Complaints have been received from other counties, and the commission may take them up together.

Prison Term Is Asked by Young Writer

SEATTLE (AP)—"Art is a living thing," the intense young man said. "For anyone to create anything artistic, he must have lived it."

The words came slowly from William G. Gates as he explained that his artistic goal is a novel with prison life as its background.

Gates was sitting in the Seattle City jail. He literally had asked to go to prison, choosing forgery as his passport.

Det. T. C. Jorgensen of the Seattle police check detail arrested Gates, 27, Wednesday afternoon. Gates quickly admitted in a signed statement he was the forger of about $100 in bum checks.

Talking with reporters, Gates said he calculated the amount he obtained through the worthless checks would get him about a year in the penitentiary. That's the time he says he needs to complete his education and get the necessary background for his novel.

Gates said he felt that forgery was the least harmful way to get to prison.

"It doesn't cause anyone physical pain," he said, "and those to whom I dropped the checks could well afford it."

Gates graduated from Yakiam (Wash.) Valley Junior College and spent a year studying psychology at the University of Washington. He said he had been planning his move for years.

Sportsmen To Meet At Lodge Tonight

Members of the Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. will spend most of tonight's meeting at the lodge near Buena Vista discussing the hunting laws and regulations with Dave Krupla, Fayette County game protector.

The subject was given priority on the program because the hunting season opens at 9 a. m. Saturday.

However, time will be taken to work out plans for a turkey shoot at the association's recreation area on Nov. 23. For this, the gunners will shoot at both clay birds from traps and at stationary bullseye targets.

A similar shoot last Sunday brought out 54 gunners and around 100 "lookers" despite a drizzle that fell nearly all day. A big bonfire was built near the trapshooting range and another in the fireplace in the lodge to keep the gunners warm and dry.

When it was over, the shooters had won seven turkeys, 20 hams and 10 fruitcakes.

McCoy Murder Trial Slated For Dec. 8

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Russell McCoy of Zanesville, who has been in jail nearly 21 months, will go on trial for first degree murder Dec. 8.

The charges stemmed from the slaying two years ago of two Uniontown grocers during a holdup. The 23-year-old McCoy admitted taking part in the holdup when he testified against another Zanseville man, Harry Dale Bundy, in a trial here.

Bundy, charged on the basis of McCoy's statement to police, was acquitted.

Authorities say McCoy also had admitted killing a half - sister, Louise See, and her husband, Lloyd, near Zanesville during an argument in February, 1957.

Common Pleas Judge George N. Graham set the trial date after McCoy wrote to him asking quick action.

Some of Nixon's associates said they doubt Eisenhower had any idea Stassen planned to use the White House for a forum. But they agreed that it is the sort of maneuver from which the vice president has trouble protecting himself.

There was also the added suspicion that Stassen's visit was no coincidence — that some powerful elements of the party may be moving in early to chip at Nixon's strength. Any move of this nature would be regarded generally as directed primarily toward elevating Rockefeller into major contention for the 1960 prize.

Steels Lose As Market Continues Dip

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and motors took losses as the stock market declined in active trading early this afternoon.

Losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among leading issues.

The market was mixed at the start with the average holding firm until late morning when prices began to give ground. Initial dealings were heavy.

Brokers saw the action as a correction to the latest advance which has set record highs for three days. Business news remained fairly good.

Some concern prevailed in Wall Street that the Federal Reserve Board may boost margins to 100 per cent from the present 90, thus dampening speculative activity to the extent of requiring full payment for stocks purchased.

Rails, coppers, electrical equipments and aircrafts were mostly lower. Oils and farm implements showed an upside edge. Tobaccos, building materials and drugs were mixed.

A drop of a point or so by American Telephone helped tilt the utility average downward. AG&T clipped some of this loss.

U.S. Steel dropped more than a point while Youngstown Sheet's loss was about two. Bethlehem and Jones & Laughlin dipped about a point apiece.

American Motors dropped 1⅛ to 30 shortly after a statement by President George Romney that the firm plans to increase substantially capital spending next year.

Ford was off about a point.

Jinxed Nova Scotia Mine Shut by Firm

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP) — The 7,000 residents of this hard-luck coal town today faced a bleak future without the $60,000 weekly payroll from mining.

The Dominion Coal Co. announced Wednesday night it had decided not to reopen the mines which have been Springhill's lifeblood for 125 years. The decision followed the second mine disaster in two years.

Foreign Student To Study, Live in WCH During '59, '60

Washington C. H. will play host to a foreign exchange student in 1959 and 1960.

A committee representing the Rotary Club and the American Assn. of University Women is arranging for the student to come here next fall to live with some family in the community and study in Washington High School for a year.

The committee met in the Washington Hotel to formulate the plans.

Mrs. O. E McCoy of Alliance, international relations chairman, Ohio Division of AAUW, addressed the group on the American Field Service plan. The AFS, Mrs. McCoy said, is a private, non-profit educational organization, whose purpose is to further understanding and good will among peoples of the world.

The program brings students from abroad to study in American high schools and to live with American families for a year.

IN EXCHANGE, American students are sent abroad to spend the summer in homes there.

The AFS students are boys or girls 16 to 18 years old. All speak English and are chosen for personal as well as academic qualities.

They live with families throughout the year and share in the home life of their American sponsors. The parents have the same authority over them they have over their own children.

L. M. Hayes is chairman of the committee to locate a home for the prospective student. Mrs. A. D. Grillot, a Latin teacher at the high school, will coordinate plans with students, faculty and families to prepare for the student.

THOSE ATTENDING the initial meeting were Max Dice, Rotary chairman of the committee; Mrs. Frank Mayo, AAUW president; Dwight Coffman, W. A. Smith, Miss Marjorie Evans, Mrs. Donald Murdock, Mrs. Leonard Watts and Mrs. A. D. Grillot.

These people and others yet to be named will form the advisory council for the project.

Carpenters Expected To Abandon AFL

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Delegates to the convention of the Brotherhood of Carpenters & Joiners, world's largest craft union, were expected to authorize union leaders today to withdraw from the AFL-CIO.

Up for action was a resolution giving the general executive board power to sever the 839,000-member union's ties with the AFL-CIO.

Some 1,200 of the convention's 2,000 delegates have signified their approval by signing copies of the measure.

Such action would be a powerful endorsement of Maurice A. Hutcheson, general president of the union. Hutcheson is under indictment in Indiana's highway scandals and has been under fire by the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

The AFL-CIO Executive Council has notified Hutcheson it wants to question him about corruption charges made against him by the Senate committee. Last week Hutcheson advised the council he could not appear at the time because of convention preliminaries.

As the convention opened, Hutcheson mailed to the council a copy of his statement to convention delegates. In it Hutcheson denied any misconduct, including charges he conspired to bribe an Indiana right-of-way official.

In Washington, AFL-CIO sources had no comment on the Carpenters resolution.

Hutcheson, who succeeded his father, the late "Big Bill" Hutcheson as president of the union in in 1952, was re-elected to the $35,000-a-year job Wednesday without opposition.

Handless Workman Shunned by Jury, To Seek New Trial

CLEVELAND (AP) — Attorneys for a 45-year-old workman who lost his hands in an industrial accident want his $500,000 damage suit tried again.

A jury ruled against Henry Joseph Degonia of Granite City, Ill. in U.S. District Court Wednesday. He had sued Federal Machine & Welder Co. of Warren, manufacturers of a hydraulic press in which Degonia's hands were crushed. They were later amputated. The suit charged negligence and carelessness on the company's part.

Degonia's employer, the A. O. Smith Co. of Granit City, was dismissed as a defendent in the suit.

Counsel for the plaintiff said a new trial will be sought. If that fails the decision will be appealed to a higher court.

tice Department is considering recommending to Congress the enactment of new civil rights legislation, some of it bearing on the school desegregation controversy.

Rogers said, however, that no conclusions have been reached.

"We hope that anything that we will recommend will be actually helpful," Rogers commented.

Legislation under consideration, Rogers said, touches on recent bombings of synagogues and schools.

Rogers' announcement focused further on Alabama the current federal action in the civil rights field.

Wednesday the Civil Rights Commission announced plans for an open hearing at Montgomery, Ala., beginning Dec. 8 on alleged denial of voting rights to Negroes.

This could lead to a clash between the state and the commission since the commission said it would subpoena all the witnesses and records it needed.

But Atty. Gen. John Patterson, Alabama's governor-elect, has told the state's vote registrars they do not have to turn over registration records to defral representatives. Patterson has added he will resist any move by the commission to get the records.

The hearing will be the first held by the new commission, which announced plans for it and other activities after a closed meeting here Wednesday.

For some time, the commission has been checking charges that registrars in Alabama's Macon County have kept Negroes from voting. Last Oct. 20, the commission demanded records from the county's Voter Registration Board. The board, following Patterson's advice, refused.

It is this refusal that prompted the commission to set up the Montgomery hearing. More than Macon County, however, may be considered. Complaints have been received from other counties, and the commission may take them up together.

Prison Term Is Asked by Young Writer

SEATTLE (AP)—"Art is a living thing," the intense young man said. "For anyone to create anything artistic, he must have lived it."

The words came slowly from William G. Gates as he explained that his artistic goal is a novel with prison life as its background.

Gates was sitting in the Seattle City jail. He literally had asked to go to prison, choosing forgery as his passport.

Det. T. C. Jorgensen of the Seattle police check detail arrested Gates, 27, Wednesday afternoon. Gates quickly admitted in a signed statement he was the forger of about $100 in bum checks.

Talking with reporters, Gates said he calculated the amount he obtained through the worthless checks would get him about a year in the penitentiary. That's the time he says he needs to complete his education and get the necessary background for his novel.

Gates said he felt that forgery was the least harmful way to get to prison.

"It doesn't cause anyone physical pain," he said, "and those to whom I dropped the checks could well afford it."

Gates graduated from Yakiam (Wash.) Valley Junior College and spent a year studying psychology at the University of Washington. He said he had been planning his move for years.

Sportsmen To Meet At Lodge Tonight

Members of the Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. will spend most of tonight's meeting at the lodge near Buena Vista discussing the hunting laws and regulations with Dave Krupla, Fayette County game protector.

The subject was given priority on the program because the hunting season opens at 9 a. m. Saturday.

However, time will be taken to work out plans for a turkey shoot at the association's recreation area on Nov. 23. For this, the gunners will shoot at both clay birds from traps and at stationary bullseye targets.

A similar shoot last Sunday brought out 54 gunners and around 100 "lookers" despite a drizzle that fell nearly all day. A big bonfire was built near the trapshooting range and another in the fireplace in the lodge to keep the gunners warm and dry.

When it was over, the shooters had won seven turkeys, 20 hams and 10 fruitcakes.

McCoy Murder Trial Slated For Dec. 8

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Russell McCoy of Zanesville, who has been in jail nearly 21 months, will go on trial for first degree murder Dec. 8.

The charges stemmed from the slaying two years ago of two Uniontown grocers during a holdup. The 23-year-old McCoy admitted taking part in the holdup when he testified against another Zanseville man, Harry Dale Bundy, in a trial here.

Bundy, charged on the basis of McCoy's statement to police, was acquitted.

Authorities say McCoy also had admitted killing a half - sister, Louise See, and her husband, Lloyd, near Zanesville during an argument in February, 1957.

Common Pleas Judge George N. Graham set the trial date after McCoy wrote to him asking quick action.

Some of Nixon's associates said they doubt Eisenhower had any idea Stassen planned to use the White House for a forum. But they agreed that it is the sort of maneuver from which the vice president has trouble protecting himself.

There was also the added suspicion that Stassen's visit was no coincidence — that some powerful elements of the party may be moving in early to chip at Nixon's strength. Any move of this nature would be regarded generally as directed primarily toward elevating Rockefeller into major contention for the 1960 prize.

Steels Lose As Market Continues Dip

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and motors took losses as the stock market declined in active trading early this afternoon.

Losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among leading issues.

The market was mixed at the start with the average holding firm until late morning when prices began to give ground. Initial dealings were heavy.

Brokers saw the action as a correction to the latest advance which has set record highs for three days. Business news remained fairly good.

Some concern prevailed in Wall Street that the Federal Reserve Board may boost margins to 100 per cent from the present 90, thus dampening speculative activity to the extent of requiring full payment for stocks purchased.

Rails, coppers, electrical equipments and aircrafts were mostly lower. Oils and farm implements showed an upside edge. Tobaccos, building materials and drugs were mixed.

A drop of a point or so by American Telephone helped tilt the utility average downward. AG&T clipped some of this loss.

U.S. Steel dropped more than a point while Youngstown Sheet's loss was about two. Bethlehem and Jones & Laughlin dipped about a point apiece.

American Motors dropped 1⅛ to 30 shortly after a statement by President George Romney that the firm plans to increase substantially capital spending next year.

Ford was off about a point.

Jinxed Nova Scotia Mine Shut by Firm

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP) — The 7,000 residents of this hard-luck coal town today faced a bleak future without the $60,000 weekly payroll from mining.

The Dominion Coal Co. announced Wednesday night it had decided not to reopen the mines which have been Springhill's lifeblood for 125 years. The decision followed the second mine disaster in two years.

Foreign Student To Study, Live in WCH During '59, '60

Washington C. H. will play host to a foreign exchange student in 1959 and 1960.

A committee representing the Rotary Club and the American Assn. of University Women is arranging for the student to come here next fall to live with some family in the community and study in Washington High School for a year.

The committee met in the Washington Hotel to formulate the plans.

Mrs. O. E McCoy of Alliance, international relations chairman, Ohio Division of AAUW, addressed the group on the American Field Service plan. The AFS, Mrs. McCoy said, is a private, non-profit educational organization, whose purpose is to further understanding and good will among peoples of the world.

The program brings students from abroad to study in American high schools and to live with American families for a year.

* * *

IN EXCHANGE, American students are sent abroad to spend the summer in homes there.

The AFS students are boys or girls 16 to 18 years old. All speak English and are chosen for personal as well as academic qualities.

They live with families throughout the year and share in the home life of their American sponsors. The parents have the same authority over them they have over their own children.

L. M. Hayes is chairman of the committee to locate a home for the prospective student. Mrs. A. D. Grillot, a Latin teacher at the high school, will coordinate plans with students, faculty and families to prepare for the student.

THOSE ATTENDING the initial meeting were Max Dice, Rotary chairman of the committee; Mrs. Frank Mayo, AAUW president; Dwight Coffman, W. A. Smith, Miss Marjorie Evans, Mrs. Donald Murdock, Mrs. Leonard Watts and Mrs. A. D. Grillot.

These people and others yet to be named will form the advisory council for the project.

What Modern Transportation Is Doing

Just a few days ago a man who recently returned from a world tour told a local group that in a number of places he visited native residents often expressed the opinion that Americans are spoiled.

Sometimes many of us wonder whether that may be true.

This man commented that when we pause to think about it, how many places could offer such advantages as we have? He mentioned that a family out in Kansas can have fresh oysters for dinner. Another in Connecticut can have tree - ripened Oregon pears. The Oklahoma socialite may have the latest new gown as soon as her sister-socialite may obtain hers on New York's Park Avenue. Also the motor car bug in Toledo or Youngstown probably can drive his '59 model car just about as soon as can the automobile factory executive in Detroit.

This is life in America, practically all across America, big or little cities or rural areas. While some of our 25,000 communities in this country can get part of this service by railroad or airplane, or perhaps by private car, by far the overwhelming share of such timely service is due to the thousands of motor truck carriers which are thundering across our rapidly enlarging highway network.

This constant interchange of supplies between the farmer and the miner, the manufacturer, the merchant and the housewife, an unceasing flow of transportation linking the largest cities and the smallest hamlets, does make the American economy a thing of wonder to most of the rest of the world.

A big part of all this is due to the growth of the trucking industry along with the expansion of our nationwide system of good roads.

A Washington C. H. man told us the other day that he had taken time to count the number of large trucks along one highway leading into Washington C. H., and to his own amazement found that over 50 such carriers passed his point of view in slightly over a two - hour period.

Transportation has become to America almost as vital as food and shelter. We are building and maintaining a civilization in which practically the whole population expects, and regards as essential, more goods and services than any people ever dreamed of before.

And the end is not yet. Maybe transportation by air, of supplies as well as well as people will become greater by far beyond our present expectations.

We can be sure of one thing— as transportation grows this country will continue to lead the world. We dare not, however, let this advantage spoil Americans or we could lose out more quickly than we think.

Worst of Marriage Recalled

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Married people rarely argue about which year they were together they were the happiest.

But they will fight like tigers about which year of matrimony was the worst.

This is a favorite subject of battle-scarred survivors of matrimony. Each member of the family corporation remembers a favorite year in which he—or she—feels that the other partner let him—or her—down.

Each remembers a Gettysburg of marriage, the hinge of supreme effort, the committal, the poised indecision, and Gen. Longstreet, the friend of the family, arriving late.

The main guns of marriage are fired early. The artillery bombardment is at the first. Then the slow and steady infantry of love and responsibility and duty moves in and seizes and holds the ground, high and low.

I can well recall when my wife Frances and I were discussing the difficulties of marriage with a bunch of young fellow veterans, and we all had pretty well agreed that the seventh or eighth month was the most terrible period of mutual adjustment.

Then up reared the head of an "elderly" lady of about 30.

"You kids don't know what you are talking about. My husband and I have been married five years. And I'll tell you what's the worst. It's the sixth year!" she said.

Well, naturally this was a shocker to us comparative newlyweds.

But this was an honest girl, and all she meant to say was that the next year of a marriage can always hold a more golden worst than any you have ever known before.

It is so true.

I was thinking of this only the other night on my own 21st wedding anniversary. I was going to celebrate it with a quiet gamble. I was going to bet my wife she couldn't cook a dinner on time after 21 years, and I knew I would win.

Eartha, our part-time maid with the whole-time heart, put a pillow behind my back. I listened to 5-year-old daughter Tracy brag that "one and one are two, two and two are four, four and four are eight, eight and eight are 16," and so on.

Somebody was riding hard for Eagle Pass on the television screen. And Tracy mumbled that 64 and 64 make 128 and fell asleep.

Then Eartha went home and the room was loud with silence. I listened to arthritis, and knew I would hear it again, by myself. I felt the penalty all things feel who feel alone.

Well, then, in bounced my wife and the Whiteheads, still rich with the magic that only the theater confers, and they cooked hamburgers and we ate them into the morning and talked of old times and new times.

After so long a time I suddenly realized what the girl who had been married five years really meant when she said the sixth year was the worst.

The worst year of any marriage is the one you haven't yet shared.

Words without Meaning

By George Sokolsky

In most parts of the United States, the recent election was without ideological position. Except in California and perhaps Arizona and Ohio, most candidates discussed no issues, avoiding them as dangerous and preferring to fill the air with a plethora of verbiage.

In New York State, where the campaign had national overtones, the candidates ran a contest between eating goulash with their fingers and eating hot dogs off a street corner push - cart.

What governors talked about did not matter so much, it being a sort of wrist - slapping election.

What candidates for the Senate or the House of Representatives said could have been very significant, but most of them spoke about the weather and the glories of this and that, avoiding such subjects as inflation, the foreign policy, the peril of the dollar and the danger of war.

By avoiding such subjects, the candidates also avoided putting their feet in their mouths. It was a grand a display of nothingness as had ever been seen.

While these fellows were travelling about spouting words, the Quemoy shooting occurred and on that subject most politicians feared to talk because it could lose them a vote or two either way. Walter Lippman permitted himself this:

"As for the United States having to prove its courage, or to lose all its friends, I would say that what we do about Quemoy is a test of the courage of the United States only if we announce to the world that we regard it as a test of our courage.

The world knows that we have fought three big wars in the past 50 years and the world, friendly, hostile and neutral, will have no doubt about the courage of this country."

No politician would say anything of the sort, because it would be like sticking a finger into an enemy's mouth. The world does not remember that we courageously fought three wars.

A generation is growing up in Russia and in Red China which never heard that the United States played any important role in World War II. This same generation does not know that we give Soviet Russia 11 billion dollars for free, out of the generosity of our hearts.

That generation only knows that Negroes cannot go to school in Little Rock and that Paul Robeson cannot sing at the Metropolitan Opera.

Unfortunately for Mr. Lippmann, the world is not as erudite as he is and does not remember yesterday's news. Politicians in every country want to know, what did you do for me today? Yesterday's generosity was to meet yesterday's problems. Today is a new day.

So the candidates could not go along with Lippman because there are no votes in that, Republican and Democrat, they avoided the entire subject. They left it to John Foster Dulles and hoped nothing serious would come of it.

They, who are the people's representatives, according to the constitution, became the people's tasters of pizza pies and Irish coffee to say nothing of gefuelte fish and sauerbraten. You may say that why is this different from kissing babies or attending wakes and bar mitzvas or laying cornerstones?

Truly, it is not different. It is all of a piece of nonsense which is unrelated to the subject of whether a candidate is worthy of election or not. A citizen observing the conduct of some candidates, could easily have thought that it might be best not to vote at all.

Is a night club exhibitionist any worse than some candidates who suddenly become "democratic" for a month before election day and then develop into stuffed shirts if elected by the people?

The Republican process is a theory of popular choice. The people set up their own government by electing chosen representatives. Those who present themselves to be chosen usually conform to a type desired by the people of a particular generation in a particular area.

If the kind of campaign which was conducted this year is what the people want, then something is lacking in our education and upbringing.

We do not demand enough of our candidates. They are actors not debaters. They project personalities not issues.

They raise their hands like prize fighters acknowledging the public applause, but they give no evidence of humility or of any doubt as to the perfection of themselves.

U. S. Hearing Faces Piqua Embezzler

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—D. Omer Tobias of Piqua, who authorities say financed his expensive antique collection with the $375,000 he allegedly embezzled from his firm, was brought to Dayton today to face arraignment in federal court Nov. 20.

Tobias, 58-year-old bachelor, was arrested by FBI agents Oct. 27 at Salem, N. J., after having fled Ohio 13 days before. He was taken to Montgomery County jail here upon his return from Salem and was held under $50,000 bond pending arraignment.

He is accused of at least 20 counts of causing stolen checks to be transported across state lines.

The FBI said Tobias allegedly embezzled $375,000 from Hobart Manufacturing Co. in Troy where he worked in the export department for 38 years.

They said he deposited company checks ranging from $2,000 to $12,000 in his personal account with Guarantee Trust Co. in New York City. The checks were to have been placed in the company's account with Guarantee Trust to pay commissions for its overseas agents.

An audit of the company's books disclosed the alleged embezzlement, between June, 1955, and last Oct. 13.

Each of the 20 counts lodged against him carries a maximum penalty of $10,000 fine or 10 years' imprisonment.

Don't Hold Your Baby To All Feeding Rules

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

BABIES thrive better when they are fed regularly. We know that, but doctors generally still don't recommend that infants be fed at too rigidly scheduled intervals.

Your little tot knows when he is hungry. And he will let you know, too. But, again, this doesn't mean that he should be fed whenever he demands it.

Since doctors, as a rule, are against too rigid scheduled feeding and demand feeding, what do they as a rule recommend?

Use Common Sense

That's simple. All I suggest is a little common sense in this matter of feeding the baby. Let the baby develop a feeding rhythm of his own!

I believe that it is cruel and inhuman to force a hungry baby to wait half an hour or even an hour for his food simply because his "feeding schedule" says it isn't time for him to eat.

By the same token, you can't feed a baby every time he begins to wail. Even a baby will recognize the fact that he has you dominated if you meet his every demand immediately.

Uncontrollable Child

If this continues, it won't be long before you have an uncontrollable child on your hands.

No, I think you should let the baby develop his own "schedule," so to speak.

Now this can be pretty rough on you parents during the first weeks or so. Your tot may have to be fed 10 or 12 times a day because his stomach is so small that it can't hold much milk.

However, as he grows older, his feeding rhythm will become better regulated. By the time he is one month old, he probably will go for three hours or even longer between feedings. While some infants continue this rhythm for some time, others graduate to feedings every four hours by the time they are two to three months old.

Of most concern to you parents, probably, is that middle-of-the-night feeding. On the average, a baby begins to sleep through the night when he is about one to two months old. This, I know, is good news to those of you who are presently being summoned for that 2 a. m. feeding by hungry wails.

One more thing: if your baby doesn't wake for his night-time feeding, don't bother waking him, unless, of course, your doctor advises it.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

J. D. A.: What is vertigo? I have had that whirling-around feeling for a number of years.

Answer: Vertigo means dizziness.

This condition may result from a number of conditions, as, for example, disease of the middle ear, heart or kidney disease, or eye disorders.

It is advisable that you have a physical examination made to determine the true nature of your condition.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE BANQUET ending the shoe manufacturers' annual convention had been a lollapaloosa, and the next morning a few of the last delegates to disperse were trying a few hair-of-the-dog remedies in the hotel bar. One reached for a double martini with a shaking hand, looked at it lovingly albeit bleary-eyed, and murmured reverently, "There's nothing makes me happier on mornings like this than watching the whitecaps on a stormy martini."

* * *

Poor Mr. Henpeck was sitting alone and neglected in a corner of the club—banished from home on the eve of a big holiday. "For Pete's sake, Sam," asked a friend, "what do you and your wife always fight about?"

What Modern Transportation Is Doing

Just a few days ago a man who recently returned from a world tour told a local group that in a number of places he visited native residents often expressed the opinion that Americans are spoiled.

Sometimes many of us wonder whether that may be true.

This man commented that when we pause to think about it, how many places could offer such advantages as we have? He mentioned that a family out in Kansas can have fresh oysters for dinner. Another in Connecticut can have tree - ripened Oregon pears. The Oklahoma socialite may have the latest new gown as soon as her sister-socialite may obtain hers on New York's Park Avenue. Also the motor car bug in Toledo or Youngstown probably can drive his '59 model car just about as soon as can the automobile factory executive in Detroit.

This is life in America, practically all across America, big or little cities or rural areas. While some of our 25,000 communities in this country can get part of this service by railroad or airplane, or perhaps by private car, by far the overwhelming share of such timely service is due to the thousands of motor truck carriers which are thundering across our rapidly enlarging highway network.

This constant interchange of supplies between the farmer and the miner, the manufacturer, the merchant and the housewife, an unceasing flow of transportation linking the largest cities and the smallest hamlets, does make the American economy a thing of wonder to most of the rest of the world.

A big part of all this is due to the growth of the trucking industry along with the expansion of our nationwide system of good roads.

A Washington C. H. man told us the other day that he had taken time to count the number of large trucks along one highway leading into Washington C. H., and to his own amazement found that over 50 such carriers passed his point of view in slightly over a two - hour period.

Transportation has become to America almost as vital as food and shelter. We are building and maintaining a civilization in which practically the whole population expects, and regards as essential, more goods and services than any people ever dreamed of before.

And the end is not yet. Maybe transportation by air, of supplies as well as well as people will become greater by far beyond our present expectations.

We can be sure of one thing— as transportation grows this country will continue to lead the world. We dare not, however, let this advantage spoil Americans or we could lose out more quickly than we think.

Worst of Marriage Recalled

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Married people rarely argue about which year they were together they were the happiest.

But they will fight like tigers about which year of matrimony was the worst.

This is a favorite subject of battle-scarred survivors of matrimony. Each member of the family corporation remembers a favorite year in which he—or she—feels that the other partner let him—or her—down.

Each remembers a Gettysburg of marriage, the hinge of supreme effort, the committal, the poised indecision, and Gen. Longstreet, the friend of the family, arriving late.

The main guns of marriage are fired early. The artillery bombardment is at the first. Then the slow and steady infantry of love and responsibility and duty moves in and seizes and holds the ground, high and low.

I can well recall when my wife Frances and I were discussing the difficulties of marriage with a bunch of young fellow veterans, and we all had pretty well agreed that the seventh or eighth month was the most terrible period of mutual adjustment.

Then up reared the head of an "elderly" lady of about 30.

"You kids don't know what you are talking about. My husband and I have been married five years. And I'll tell you what's the worst. It's the sixth year!" she said.

Well, naturally this was a shocker to us comparative newlyweds.

But this was an honest girl, and all she meant to say was that the next year of a marriage can always hold a more golden worst than any you have ever known before.

It is so true.

I was thinking of this only the other night on my own 21st wedding anniversary. I was going to celebrate it with a quiet gamble. I was going to bet my wife she couldn't cook a dinner on time after 21 years, and I knew I would win.

It didn't work out that way. I was bedfast with a bad back.

Eartha, our part-time maid with the whole-time heart, put a pillow behind my back. I listened to 5-year-old daughter Tracy brag that "one and one are two, two and two are four, four and four are eight, eight and eight are 16," and so on.

Somebody was riding hard for Eagle Pass on the television screen. And Tracy mumbled that 64 and 64 make 128 and fell asleep.

Then Eartha went home and the room was loud with silence. I listened to arthritis, and knew I would hear it again, by myself. I felt the penalty all things feel who feel alone.

Well, then, in bounced my wife and the Whiteheads, still rich with the magic that only the theater confers, and they cooked hamburgers and we ate them into the morning and talked of old times and new times.

After so long a time I suddenly realized what the girl who had been married five years really meant when she said the sixth year was the worst.

The worst year of any marriage is the one you haven't yet shared.

Words without Meaning

By George Sokolsky

In most parts of the United States, the recent election was without ideological position. Except in California and perhaps Arizona and Ohio, most candidates discussed no issues, avoiding them as dangerous and preferring to fill the air with a plethora of verbiage.

In New York State, where the campaign had national overtones, the candidates ran a contest between eating goulash with their fingers and eating hot dogs off a street corner push - cart.

What governors talked about did not matter so much, it being a sort of wrist - slapping election.

What candidates for the Senate or the House of Representatives said could have been very significant, but most of them spoke about the weather and the glories of this and that, avoiding such subjects as inflation, the foreign policy, the peril of the dollar and the danger of war.

By avoiding such subjects, the candidates also avoided putting their feet in their mouths. It was a grand a display of nothingness as had ever been seen.

While these fellows were travelling about spouting words, the Quemoy shooting occurred and on that subject most politicians feared to talk because it could lose them a vote or two either way. Walter Lippman permitted himself this:

"As for the United States having to prove its courage, or to lose all its friends, I would say that what we do about Quemoy is a test of the courage of the United States only if we announce to the world that we regard it as a test of our courage.

The world knows that we have fought three big wars in the past 50 years and the world, friendly, hostile and neutral, will have no doubt about the courage of this country."

No politician would say anything of the sort, because it would be like sticking a finger into an enemy's mouth. The world does not remember that we courageously fought three wars.

A generation is growing up in Russia and in Red China which never heard that the United States played any important role in World War II. This same generation does not know that we give Soviet Russia 11 billion dollars for free, out of the generosity of our hearts.

That generation only knows that Negroes cannot go to school in Little Rock and that Paul Robeson cannot sing at the Metropolitan Opera.

Unfortunately for Mr. Lippmann, the world is not as erudite as he is and does not remember yesterday's news. Politicians in every country want to know, what did you do for me today? Yesterday's generosity was to meet yesterday's problems. Today is a new day.

So the candidates could not go along with Lippman because there are no votes in that, Republican and Democrat, they avoided the entire subject. They left it to John Foster Dulles and hoped nothing serious would come of it.

They, who are the people's representatives, according to the constitution, became the people's tasters of pizza pies and Irish coffee to say nothing of gefuelte fish and sauerbraten. You may say that why is this different from kissing babies or attending wakes and bar mitzvas or laying cornerstones?

Truly, it is not different. It is all of a piece of nonsense which is unrelated to the subject of whether a candidate is worthy of election or not. A citizen observing the conduct of some candidates, could easily have thought that it might be best not to vote at all.

Is a night club exhibitionist any worse than some candidates who suddenly become "democratic" for a month before election day and then develop into stuffed shirts if elected by the people?

The Republican process is a theory of popular choice. The people set up their own government by electing chosen representatives. Those who present themselves to be chosen usually conform to a type desired by the people of a particular generation in a particular area.

If the kind of campaign which was conducted this year is what the people want, then something is lacking in our education and upbringing.

We do not demand enough of our candidates. They are actors not debaters. They project personalities not issues.

They raise their hands like prize fighters acknowledging the public applause, but they give no evidence of humility or of any doubt as to the perfection of themselves.

U. S. Hearing Faces Piqua Embezzler

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—D. Omer Tobias of Piqua, who authorities say financed his expensive antique collection with the $375,000 he allegedly embezzled from his firm, was brought to Dayton today to face arraignment in federal court Nov. 20

Tobias, 58-year-old bachelor, was arrested by FBI agents Oct. 27 at Salem, N. J., after having fled Ohio 13 days before. He was taken to Montgomery County jail here upon his return from Salem and was held under $50,000 bond pending arraignment.

He is accused of at least 20 counts of causing stolen checks to be transported across state lines.

The FBI said Tobias allegedly embezzled $375,000 from Hobart Manufacturing Co. in Troy where he worked in the export department for 38 years.

They said he deposited company checks ranging from $2,000 to $12,000 in his personal account with Guarantee Trust Co. in New York City. The checks were to have been placed in the company's account with Guarantee Trust to pay commissions for its overseas agents.

An audit of the company's books disclosed the alleged embezzlement, between June, 1955, and last Oct. 13.

Each of the 20 counts lodged against him carries a maximum penalty of $10,000 fine or 10 years' imprisonment.

Don't Hold Your Baby To All Feeding Rules

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

BABIES thrive better when they are fed regularly. We know that, but doctors generally still don't recommend that infants be fed at too rigidly scheduled intervals.

Your little tot knows when he is hungry. And he will let you know, too. But, again, this doesn't mean that he should be fed whenever he demands it.

Since doctors, as a rule, are against too rigid scheduled feeding and demand feeding, what do they as a rule recommend?

Use Common Sense

That's simple. All I suggest is a little common sense in this matter of feeding the baby. Let the baby develop a feeding rhythm of his own!

I believe that it is cruel and inhuman to force a hungry baby to wait half an hour or even an hour for his food simply because his "feeding schedule" says it isn't time for him to eat.

By the same token, you can't feed a baby every time he begins to wail. Even a baby will recognize the fact that he has you dominated if you meet his every demand immediately.

Uncontrollable Child

If this continues, it won't be long before you have an uncontrollable child on your hands.

No, I think you should let the baby develop his own "schedule," so to speak.

Now this can be pretty rough on you parents during the first weeks or so. Your tot may have to be fed 10 or 12 times a day because his stomach is so small that it can't hold much milk.

However, as he grows older, his feeding rhythm will become better regulated. By the time he is one month old, he probably will go for three hours or even longer between feedings. While some infants continue this rhythm for some time, others graduate to feedings every four hours by the time they are two to three months old.

Of most concern to you parents, probably, is that middle-of-the-night feeding. On the average, a baby begins to sleep through the night when he is about one to two months old. This, I know, is good news to those of you who are presently being summoned for that 2 a. m. feeding by hungry wails.

One more thing: if your baby doesn't wake for his night-time feeding, don't bother waking him, unless, of course, your doctor advises it.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

J. D. A.: What is vertigo? I have had that whirling-around feeling for a number of years.

Answer: Vertigo means dizziness.

This condition may result from a number of conditions, as, for example, disease of the middle ear, heart or kidney disease, or eye disorders.

It is advisable that you have a physical examination made to determine the true nature of your condition.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE BANQUET ending the shoe manufacturers' annual convention had been a lollapaloosa, and the next morning a few of the last delegates to disperse were trying a few hair-of-the-dog remedies in the hotel bar. One reached for a double martini with a shaking hand, looked at it lovingly albeit bleary-eyed, and murmured reverently, "There's nothing makes me happier on mornings like this than watching the whitecaps on a stormy martini."

'59 Line Cars Nearly All Out To Dealers Now

Studebaker's 'Lark' May Tell Future of Smaller U.S. Autos

DETROIT (AP)—The auto industry will have all its regular 1959 line cars on the market this week. Studebaker - Packard presents its smaller Lark series on Friday.

Still to come is an addition to the Ford line—the Galaxie. It is scheduled for dealer introduction early next month.

Public reaction to the Lark series will get industrywide attention. Studebaker-Packard's hopes of remaining in the automobile business will ride in the Lark. To a significant degree the Lark, in several body styles and with six or eight cylinder engines, will disclose how great is the demand for smaller, more economical automobiles.

So far the growing demand for smaller, lower priced cars has been met by imported vehicles and American Motors. With its Rambler series American Motors has been the only car maker to build and sell more cars this year than it did in 1957.

The Galaxie will be the top priced car in the Ford division line. Its price has not been disclosed, but many industry analysts regard it as designed to compete with Chevrolet's Impala series.

Expanded for 1959 to include a four-door sedan and a four-door hardtop, the Impala series carries suggested factory list prices ranging from $2,592 for the 6-cylinder four-door sedan to $2,967 for the V-8 convertible. The Galaxie borrows much of its styling from the Ford Thunderbird and the Continental Mark IV.

The Thunderbird introduced, initially as a single-seat, two-passenger car was redesigned to seat four passengers. It has been one of the hottest cars in the Ford line. Ford built 42,233 Thunderbirds in the first 10 months of 1958 against 14,010 in the similar 1957 period.

Studebaker-Packard has not had so much of the industry spotlight in many years. Concentrating mainly on the smaller Lark series, it has discontinued the Packard line and other models in the larger car series. The Silver Hawk series is being continued for 1959. S-P is continuing to import the Mercedes-Benz models.

The Lark brought favorable comment from industry chroniclers who drove various models in the AP national press preview a few weeks ago.

Some experts say its reception may determine whether General Motors, Ford and Chrysler will bring out their planned smaller vehicles earlier than scheduled next year. Many believe the small car market still is far from its peak.

This is the view taken by Harold E. Churchill, Studebaker - Packard president. Those who share his view say the demand for the smaller cars is broad enough for both American Motors and Studebaker - Packard. They are not equally certain it is big enough for those two companies plus General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

11 Muscular Jungle Men Vie for Newest Tarzan Role

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eleven movie muscle men are up a tree. They're fretting over which one will be elected the screen's Tarzan the 19th.

And I mean literally up a tree. At least they were the other day when the 11 hopefuls reported to the world jungle compound at 1,000 Oaks to pose for photos and movie tests.

Another fellow who's fretting is Sy Weintraub. He's the new producer of the longest-running movie series. He has to decide which fellow wins the loin cloth. Before he took off for Europe to see three foreign possibilities, I sat with him while he watched the screen tests.

One by one, the lads stalked through the brush, peered around furtively, stooped to pick up a piece of evidence and then uttered the famed Tarzan bellow. Fortunately, the tests were silent.

Weintraub cited three or four who will be in the final running. These were in his qualifications for the 19th Tarzan:

"He's got to have the graceful movement of a Joe DiMaggio and the build of a Charles Atlas, but he doesn't need to have the acting ability of a Laurence Olivier. He must be well-built but not muscle-bound; we want a man who is lithe and looks as though he lived in a jungle."

It's a pretty tall order, and Weintraub must make his decision soon. His crews will be taking off for Africa to film the first of the new series.

"We're making it hard for ourselves and calling it 'Tarzan's Greatest Adventure,'" he reported. "How are we going to top that? I don't know. Maybe we'll do 'Son of Tarzan's Greatest Adventure.'"

Weintraub, a young, enthusiastic man, is hepped up about the future of the Tarzan epics. He cited figures of a half-billion dollars in returns from the films, which date back to the early silents.

"In recent years, there has been only about one film every 14 months," he said. "We plan to make two a year. It's better to keep a continuous publicity campaign going than to build one every time you put out a picture.

"Besides, there is a surefire audience. Every Tarzan plays 15,000 theater dates. That's more than for 'Bridge on the River Kwai.'"

Among the previous Tarzans there have been many who have revolted at their contracts, which limited them to the jungle.

Here's a note for the jungle-type babes: No need to apply for the role of Tarzan's mate. Weintraub says there will be no Jane in the new picture.

"Tarzan was getting too suburban," he explained.

White Collar Strike Hampering Chrysler

DETROIT (AP)—A strike by 8,000 office employes and engineers threatens to cutback Chrysler Corp.'s production operations across the country.

Of the company's 70,000 production workers, 16,400 were idled Tuesday when pickets appeared at eight Detroit area plants.

The United Auto Workers Union which represents the striking engineers and office workers as well as Chrysler production employes, said it will act to keep plant closings at a minimum.

'59 Line Cars Nearly All Out To Dealers Now

Studebaker's 'Lark' May Tell Future of Smaller U.S. Autos

DETROIT (AP)—The auto industry will have all its regular 1959 line cars on the market this week. Studebaker - Packard presents its smaller Lark series on Friday.

Still to come is an addition to the Ford line—the Galaxie. It is scheduled for dealer introduction early next month.

Public reaction to the Lark series will get industrywide attention. Studebaker-Packard's hopes of remaining in the automobile business will ride in the Lark. To a significant degree the Lark, in several body styles and with six or eight cylinder engines, will disclose how great is the demand for smaller, more economical automobiles.

So far the growing demand for smaller, lower priced cars has been met by imported vehicles and American Motors. With its Rambler series American Motors has been the only car maker to build and sell more cars this year than it did in 1957.

The Galaxie will be the top priced car in the Ford division line. Its price has not been disclosed, but many industry analysts regard it as designed to compete with Chevrolet's Impala series.

Expanded for 1959 to include a four-door sedan and a four-door hardtop, the Impala series carries suggested factory list prices ranging from $2,592 for the 6-cylinder four-door sedan to $2,967 for the V-8 convertible. The Galaxie borrows much of its styling from the Ford Thunderbird and the Continental Mark IV.

The Thunderbird introduced, initially as a single-seat, two-passenger car was redesigned to seat four passengers. It has been one of the hottest cars in the Ford line. Ford built 42,233 Thunderbirds in the first 10 months of 1958 against 14,010 in the similar 1957 period.

Studebaker-Packard has not had so much of the industry spotlight in many years. Concentrating mainly on the smaller Lark series, it has discontinued the Packard line and other models in the larger car series. The Silver Hawk series is being continued for 1959. S-P is continuing to import the Mercedes-Benz models.

The Lark brought favorable comment from industry chroniclers who drove various models in the AP national press preview a few weeks ago.

Some experts say its reception may determine whether General Motors, Ford and Chrysler will bring out their planned smaller vehicles earlier than scheduled next year. Many believe the small car market still is far from its peak.

This is the view taken by Harold E. Churchill, Studebaker - Packard president. Those who share his view say the demand for the smaller cars is broad enough for both American Motors and Studebaker - Packard. They are not equally certain it is big enough for those two companies plus General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

11 Muscular Jungle Men Vie for Newest Tarzan Role

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eleven movie muscle men are up a tree. They're fretting over which one will be elected the screen's Tarzan the 19th.

And I mean literally up a tree. At least they were the other day when the 11 hopefuls reported to the world jungle compound at 1,000 Oaks to pose for photos and movie tests.

Another fellow who's fretting is Sy Weintraub. He's the new producer of the longest-running movie series. He has to decide which fellow wins the loin cloth. Before he took off for Europe to see three foreign possibilities, I sat with him while he watched the screen tests.

One by one, the lads stalked through the brush, peered around furtively, stooped to pick up a piece of evidence and then uttered the famed Tarzan bellow. Fortunately, the tests were silent.

Weintraub cited three or four who will be in the final running. These were in his qualifications for the 19th Tarzan:

"He's got to have the graceful movement of a Joe DiMaggio and the build of a Charles Atlas, but he doesn't need to have the acting ability of a Laurence Olivier. He must be well-built but not muscle-bound; we want a man who is lithe and looks as though he lived in a jungle."

It's a pretty tall order, and Weintraub must make his decision soon. His crews will be taking off for Africa to film the first of the new series.

"We're making it hard for ourselves and calling it 'Tarzan's Greatest Adventure,'" he reported. "How are we going to top that? I don't know. Maybe we'll do 'Son of Tarzan's Greatest Adventure.'"

Weintraub, a young, enthusiastic man, is hepped up about the future of the Tarzan epics. He cited figures of a half-billion dollars in returns from the films, which date back to the early silents.

"In recent years, there has been only about one film every 14 months," he said. "We plan to make two a year. It's better to keep a continuous publicity campaign going than to build one every time you put out a picture.

"Besides, there is a surefire audience. Every Tarzan plays 15,000 theater dates. That's more than for 'Bridge on the River Kwai.'"

Among the previous Tarzans there have been many who have revolted at their contracts, which limited them to the jungle.

Here's a note for the jungle-type babes: No need to apply for the role of Tarzan's mate. Weintraub says there will be no Jane in the new picture.

"Tarzan was getting too suburban," he explained.

White Collar Strike Hampering Chrysler

DETROIT (AP)—A strike by 8,000 office employes and engineers threatens to cutback Chrysler Corp.'s production operations across the country.

Of the company's 70,000 production workers, 16,400 were idled Tuesday when pickets appeared at eight Detroit area plants.

The United Auto Workers Union which represents the striking engineers and office workers as well as Chrysler production employes, said it will act to keep plant closings at a minimum.

Both Portland, Ore., and Little Rock, Ark., are known as the "City of Roses."

Shrimp de Jonghe-Crumbs Dry or Soft?

BREAD CRUMBS may tell the tale here, for this casserole of Shrimp de Jonghe was made with soft-bread crumbs. The original recipe was kept secret and there's some question about whether dry-bread or soft-bread crumbs were used by the Belgian couple, de Jonghe, who invented the dish.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Food Editor

Two distinguished seafood dishes are American born. One is Oysters Rockefeller, the other Shrimp de Jonghe.

We have yet to visit New Orleans, dine at Antoine's, and taste the famous Oysters Rockefeller. But ever since Jules Alciator, son of the founder of Antoine's, created that dish, the restaurant's offering has been widely copied.

We've enjoyed wonderfully good imitations of it in various parts of the country. One we remember with a distinct whetting of the appetite, came from the kitchens of a Russian dining place in Chicago. To concoct a version of Oysters Rockefeller at home, you have only to turn to The New Fannie Farmer for guidance.

• • •

ACCORDING to legend, the shrimp dish was originated by a Belgian couple named de Jonghe who once operated a restaurant in Chicago.

Like the rule for Oysters Rockefeller, the recipe for Shrimp de Jonghe was kept a well-guarded secret. But tasters who savored or heard of it made facsimiles in their own kitchens, and once in a while we come upon one of these recipes.

All these rules for Shrimp de Jonghe have a basic simility — cooked shelled shrimp are seasoned with a mixture of butter, bread crumbs and herbs and baked or broiled. But one point remains a mystery: did the de Jonghes use bread crumbs of the dry or soft variety? Does anyone know the answer?

Readers who were fortunate enough to have eaten the dish as originally prepared by the Belgian couple will do us a big favor if they will share their knowledge with us.

• • •

THE following version of Shrimp de Jonghe follows the soft bread-crumb school. We use individual inexpensive heat-resistant glass pie plates to hold the seafood and the recipe makes four small but rich main dishes. We served these for lunch accompanied by a salad of tossed greens, cucumber and a tart vinaigrette sauce; for dessert fruit and cheese.

SHRIMP DE JONGHE

Ingredients: 1 pound shrimp (cooked and shelled and deveined) 4 slices (about) white bread, ¼ pound (½ cup) butter (softened but not melted), ¾ to 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 cloves garlic (minced), ¼ teaspoon dried crushed thyme, ¼ teaspoon dried crushed tarragon, 1 teaspoon tabasco sauce, 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Method: Slice each shrimp in half lengthwise; reserve. Trim crusts from bread; break apart and blend bread very quickly, a few pieces at a time, in an electric blender. If you haven't a blender, mince the bread (using a sharp knife) to form tiny crumbs. Use enough of the bread to make 1½ cups lightly packed crumbs.

Blend together butter, salt, onion garlic, thyme, tarragon, parsley, tabasco sauce and lemon juice. Stire in bread crumbs. Arrange shrimp over bottoms of four individual heat-resistant pie dishes (about 5 to 6 inches in diameter and about 1 inch deep). Cover shrimp with crumb mixture.

Broil slowly so shrimp are heated through and topping is lightly browned — about 10 minutes. Serve at once; makes 4 portions.

WAX IT

A few shavings of parawax added to hot starch will give a lovely gloss to your table linens.

Coarsely grated drained cucumber, folded into sour cream, makes a delectable accompaniment to a salmon — fresh or canned. If you can't get sour cream, whip heavy cream, add a little lemon juice and use it. In either case lots of salt and freshly-ground pepper is needed.

Calorie-Counting New Way of Life

NEW YORK (AP) — One out of three Americans is overweight. One out of 10 of us is currently on a diet — and a lot more of us are going to go on a diet, but tomorrow or the next day, perhaps.

In spite of the fact that the diet is fast becoming part of our way of life, it seems that most of us are largely unsuccessful in shedding pounds, for keeps, anyway.

But the continuing American effort to slim down is having some interesting effects — social and economic.

Survey-makers, those indefatigable samplers, have been at work uncovering what might be called a calorie-snobbery. As "calorie" has evolved into a slightly unpleasant word, it has been getting chic to be slim.

One survey, for instance, found that the chances of a lady fitting into a small size dress increased as her husband's salary and social position soared upwards.

• • •

A STUDY made in a store revealed that among women in the $3,000 to $4,000 income bracket, only 42 per cent were ablt to squeeze into "misses" sizes.

However, some 59 per cent of women with incomes between $5,000 and $7,000 were able to wear them. (This, of course, might mean that men making between $5,000 and $7,000 like skimmy dames, but the interpreters of the survey suggest that, on the contrary, it means that there's a status symbol abuilding around avoirdupois).

Meanwhile, back at the factory, milday's passion for calorie counting is causing something akin to an industrial and farming revolution.

Fo some time now, Americans have been consuming less cereal and grain products. The drop in potato consumption has become so alarming that the potato interests have been crusading to give the lie to what they insist is a canard about the potato's caloric content.

Sugar, too, has come in for its lumps, and the candy manufacturers long for the good old days when the correct gift was usually a box of same.

• • •

AN important part of the promotion campaign for the banana a year or so ago was directed toward correcting the impression it was just chock full of calories. Even the nation's truck farmers got a little nervous when the diet experts suddenly took out after good old lettuce ("Under the innocent leafy green exterior often lies the richest oils and the dressings")

Handy Hints . .

Use a half cup each of chopped onion and celery to six slices of bread when you are making poultry stuffing for good flavor.

• • •

• • •

• •

• • •

A ready-to-cook duckling weighing between four and five pounds will serve four persons nicely.

However, there is another side to the coin and this one is golden.

A recent issue of a food trade magazine, for instance, exhorted its readers to take a profitable look at what it calls "the overweight market" which includes about a third of the population and may well go higher.

The florist and the nation's gift shoppes have benefitted as low-calorie and no-calories presents have become de rigueur for many occasions. The sugar substitute business also has boomed as the sugar interests moaned.

And food processors have been busily develping slimming foods, not only for fat humans but for their overweight pets too.

2nd Step Taken To Get Vote on Charity Bingo

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown today received a proposed constitutional amendment seeking to legalize charity bingo in Ohio.

Submission of the proposal was the second step by sponsors to place the issue on 1959 election ballots.

Atty. Gen. William Saxbe Tuesday announced approval of the wording of th proposal to change the state constitution, which bans lotteries.

Elmer M. Coy, head of a committee of Toledo residents, submitted the proposal. He said the Legislature will be asked to place the issue before voters. If the Legislature refuses, Coy said, petitions will be circulated to bring the proposal to a vote.

Coy envisioned the proposal as the start of a move for a national lottery to pay off the national debt.

2nd Step Taken To Get Vote on Charity Bingo

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown today received a proposed constitutional amendment seeking to legalize charity bingo in Ohio.

Submission of the proposal was the second step by sponsors to place the issue on 1959 election ballots.

Atty. Gen. William Saxbe Tuesday announced approval of the wording of th proposal to change the state constitution, which bans lotteries.

Elmer M. Coy, head of a committee of Toledo residents, submitted the proposal. He said the Legislature will be asked to place the issue before voters. If the Legislature refuses, Coy said, petitions will be circulated to bring the proposal to a vote.

Coy envisioned the proposal as the start of a move for a national lottery to pay off the national debt.

Space Capsule Bids Sought

1-Ton Job Expected To Orbit 28 Hours

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has asked the missile industry to design a one-ton space capsule capable of orbiting the earth for as much as 28 hours.

NASA plans to launch the capsule from Cape Canaveral, Fla. in the nose of an Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile.

It said in an announcement that the winning design may resemble capsule concepts proposed for manned flight into space, but will not be a true space craft.

The agency presented its preliminary specifications to 38 missile and aviation manufacturers at a meeting at the Langley Research Center near Norfolk, Va. last Friday.

NASA asked the companies to submit bids by Dec. 4, and said it would award a contract for the long-term development of the space capsule after Jan. 1.

NASA told the manufacturers it wanted two complete orbits from the first of the vehicles, and 18 or more from later models. The satellites must attain an almost circular orbit rigidly fixed between the altitudes of 125 and 140 miles.

Initially the capsule will contain only instruments for measuring acceleration and deceleration, velocitities, temperatures and other data for relay back to earth by radio telemetry systems.

After several such launchings, capsules with monkeys or other animals will be sent aloft in a study of the problems of abrupt acceleration on takeoff, re-entry into the earth's atmosphere, and recovery once the vehicle has been returned to earth.

Eventually the capsules, if they prove satisfactory, may be adapted for manned satellite flight.

A new launch stand at Cape Canaveral, Fla. makes possible to fire future satellite rockets in winds up to 38 mph velocity. This is about twice the velocity of those that previously could be cleared.

Hero Officer's Fatal Robbery Act Is Puzzle

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (AP)—Mrs. Russell Edgar Parker aimlessly caressed an empty coffee cup, puzzled by the question which had tormented her for sleepless hours.

"I know people are asking why an officer with a fine record would do this thing," she said. "I cannot answer them. I simply cannot."

Her husband, a 40-year-old Army major from Laurel, Miss., was shot and killed Monday night as he fled with $568 he had stolen in a holdup at a downtown Kansas City movie theater. The decorated veteran of World War II and Korea was shot by the theater manager.

The Parkers came to Ft. Leavenworth from Corbin, Ky., in August and he was taking a 10-month course at the Army's Command and General Staff College. They lived in the upstairs of a private home in Leavenworth. They have no children.

"I have no idea . . . There was no hint . . . that anything was so desperately wrong," said Mrs. Parker. "He seemed to be in good spirit. He seemed to be in good health.

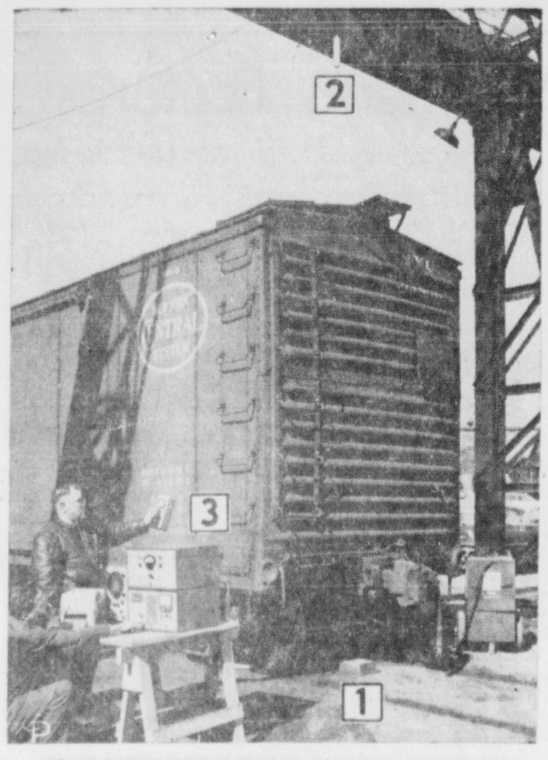

"He was happy-go-lucky in a way, but he took his studies seriously. He was determined to do well. I wanted to help him. I had no outside activities."

The course he was taking is sometimes called the "pressure cooker."

An Army spokesman said Maj. Parker may have worried about financial problems. He had helped pay heavy medical expenses incurred recently by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Parker in Laurel.

The highway across the bay will be on bridges to the islands, then duck through a tunnel under ship channels.

1959 Distributor Appointment Program Just Starting

The International Swimming Pool Corporation, world's leading manufacturer of home and motel swimming pools, has just launched the largest new distributor appointment program in the Company's history. International is the exclusive manufacturer of the famous Esther Williams Pools and is expanding manufacturing, service and training facilities in order to serve an additional 500 communities.

Backed by the biggest swimming pool publicity and advertising campaign ever announced in the industry, the new distributor appointment program is scheduled to be completed within six weeks.

This market has been selected by International's Marketing Committee for one of the new distributorships. An Esther Williams marketing executive will personally consult with home owners and motel owners and consider applications for the Esther Williams distributorship in this area (see box below).

DISTRIBUTOR QUALIFICATIONS

Good character, a successful business background and a desire to build your own business are the prime qualifications for an Esther Williams distributorship.

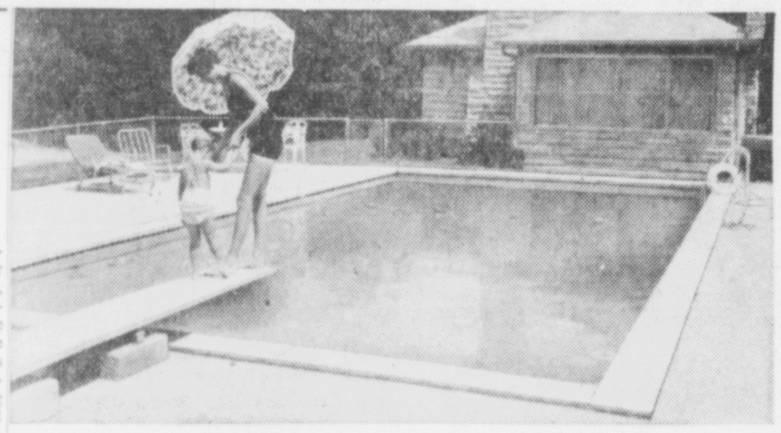

The home and motel swimming pool business has become one of America's fastest growing new industries. The Esther Williams Pool is the undisputed leader in this new industry, accounting for 30 to 40% of all the permanent-type pool business.

Industry sales have more than doubled every year for the past three years. Trade experts, however, point out that pool sales have not yet reached boom stage. Sales on a gigantic scale are expected to begin in 1959 and continue for many years to come.

No franchise fee is required of a new Esther Williams distributor. Distributor appointed will be expected to make a modest investment in self-liquidating inventory with big profit potential. Construction experience is not a requirement.

ATTENTION HOME OWNERS

If you have an acquaintance who is interested in the exclusive Esther Williams distributorship in this area, contact the Division Marketing Manager at the address or telephone in box at right. If your recommendation is appointed, you will be entitled to an Esther Williams Family Swimming Pool at dealer cost!

America's Largest-Selling Family and Motel Pool To Be Available In This Area

At a recent distributor conference, Esther Williams observed that, "It is truly amazing how quickly a community becomes swimming pool conscious following the appointment of the distributor for our complete line of family and motel pools."

Many swimming pool authorities credit Miss Williams as being the major influence in speeding up the trend to family swimming pools—a trend that is sweeping across America and making the backyard family pool a sound investment, as well as the new and accepted adjunct to American family living.

At the same conference Miss Williams also explained, "I believe there are four basic reasons why the Esther Williams Pool is outselling all others by a wide margin.

"First, it's the safest pool with the exclusive safety walk all around, the flat play area and the safety cover. These features give parents peace of mind. Being the mother of three energetic children, I can assure you these wonderful features give me peace of mind.

"Secondly, an Esther Williams Pool is built to last because of the rigid construction standards established by our Engineering Department—poured concrete, steel reinforced throughout and covered with exclusive Perma-Seal Poolskin which eliminates costly painting expenses.

"The third basic reason is that an Esther Williams Pool is complete in every respect for convenience, maximum family fun and the most economical maintenance—everything including filter, underwater light, stainless steel ladder, laminated diving board and 10 other items. There are no hidden extras to buy.

"And, the fourth reason more people from coast to coast are buying this complete pool than any other is the integrity on the part of Esther Williams distributors to provide the finest possible pool at lowest cost."

TEAM GETS JACKETS

New basketball jackets have been received by the players on the reserve and varsity teams. They are a brilliant red, with a white emblem on the front on the left side. In the center is stitched its name "Bulldogs", the last name of the jacket's owner, and the year he will be graduated.

CONSERVATION TOUR

Twenty-one BHS students attended the Soil Conservation Tour sponsored by the Fayette County Farm Bureau. The trip was held at the Alpha Farms last Wednesday. The pupils left on a school bus driven by Paul Smith and returned at noon.

Willard Bitzer gave a talk on tiling land and supplying shelter for wildlife. The manager of the farms, Robert Jackson, spoke about contour farming. The effects of terracing land and making waterways were discussed by Mr. Kerns.

Prizes will be awarded to both school and county winners. Students taking the tour are expected to submit an essay of not more than a thousand words on the subject of conservation.

Pupils who are now busily writing their essays (or should be) are: Ninth grade - Ramona Brill, Joyce Cannon, Vivian Harris, Sam Lane, Dale Mickle, Gary Smith;

Eleventh grade - John Hall;

Twelfth grade - Jack Elliott, Dorothy Fortier, Stephen Foster, David Heistand, Betty Jo Meredith, Nancy Nessell, Wendell Oberschlake, Fred Pfizer, Charolotte Walters.

PLAY IS SUCCESS

The junior class play, presented Friday, Nov. 7, was considered a major success. Members of the class wish to thank everyone who helped with the three-act comedy.

David Cox and Forrest Leach were the state managers. The furniture for the stage setting was donated by Kirk's Funiture Store. John Cunningham, assisted by Jack McCoy, was the ticket manager in charge of that very important commodity — money.

The make-up director was Mrs. Elton B. Elliott, a former Bloomingburg teacher and director of many class plays. The programs were mimeographed by JoAnn Butcher and Mrs. Roush Burton, the commercial teacher.

Between acts a desk lamp was presented to Mr. Malcolm Kelley, the director, to show the class's appreciation for his patience and hard work. John Cunningham, president of the class, made the presentation.

Very effective posters were made by Shirley Clark and Jean and Janet Harris. Charles Purdom was in charge of sound effects. Ushers were Leslie Fridley, Jim Grimm, John Hall and Kenny Leach.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Heistand and their daughters, Kay and Marilyn, entertained the juniors and their guests with a party after the play. The guests enjoyed a marshmallow roast, refreshments and games. Group singing was accompanied on the piano by the class Liberace, Eugene VanDyne.

PHYSICS

All that noise in the halls Friday afternoon did not come, as some may have thought, from a plane crashing the sound barrier. Rather it was merely (!) Mr. Kenneth Craig's physics class working on an experiment.

The members of the class tried to calculate their own horsepower. They measured the height of the stairs in the entrance hall up to the second floor, which was found to be 20 feet.

They multiplied their own weight by the height of the stairs, divided that by 550 foot pounds per second, and then multiplied by the length of time that was required to run up the stairs.

Most of the students were disappointed to discover that they had less than one horsepower. David Heistand had the highest in the class, a little over one.

The boys tied a string with a weight to a pipe, then moved their pendulum with different speeds while lengthening the string.

Mr. Craig timed the homemade pendulum with a stop-watch, and by working the problem according to the formula in the physics book, they found they had come within one-fifth of a second of the actual time.

Judge Dismisses Stabbing Charge

The case against Richard Allen, 40, of Xenia, accused of stabbing a Bloomingburg man with intent to wound Nov. 2, was dismissed by Municipal Judge Max G. Dice for lack of evidence Wednesday.

Allen was accused of stabbing Harry Woodfork, 28, during a fight near the Rocking Chair Inn, 428 Wilson Ave.

Judge Dice said the prosecution had no evidence that Allen stabbed Woodfork during the fight which involved four or five men.

Dr. Harold C. Phillips, who started his career in the ministry as the student pastor of the Sugar Creek Baptist Church on the Jamestown Rd. while a student in Denison University, will be the principal speaker at a special service in Grace Methodist Church at 7 p. m. Sunday.

Dr. Phillips, who was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Cleveland from 1928 to 1958, is now a member of the Theological Seminary faculty at Oberlin College.

A member of the committee here said "he is widely sought as a speaker and his books and articles are welcomed by an eager public."

He told the committee that he feels "this will be like a homecoming," since he started in the ministry in this community.

There will special music at the service by Robert Newmann, vocalist, and Miss Marian Christopher, organist. The Rev. L. J. Poe, pastor of Grace Church, will open the service with a period of meditation.

A committee spokesman said 'the public is cordially invited to come and share this fellowship and hear this well known speaker."

Eastside Carnival Supper Plans Laid

Final plans for the supper that will start the carnival at the new Eastside School on Nov. 22 were made by a committee of the sponsoring Parent-Teacher Assn. Wednesday afternoon.

The carnival, the first major event of the kind ever held in the school, will start at 5:30 p. m.

Earl Miller, principal of the school presided at the committee meeting. Other committee members there were Mrs. Fred James, Mrs. Frank Karney, Mrs. Arthur Tyree, Mrs. John Gerstner, Mrs. Joe McFadden, Mrs. Lilliam Sommers and Mrs. Martha Haines.

Other committees are now making plans for the carnival features which will provide entertainment during the evening.

16-Year-Old Slayer To Be Tried as Adult

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A 16-year-old boy accused of slaying a 62-year-old railroad worker will be tried as an adult. Juvenile Judge Henry P. Beckenbach of Mahoning County Wednesday ordered Richard Harter of Garfield Heights, a Cleveland suburb bound to the county grand jury. Edward Craven was shot last Oct. 8, police said, when he refused to turn his car over to the boy.

Bullet-Punctured Body Said That of Detroit Salesman

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A body found floating in Maumee Bay Sunday was tentatively identified today as that of a 40-year-old Detroit salesman who had been missing since Oct. 24.

The missing man, Clyde W Lambert, was a salesman for a Detroit business machine firm.

The body, with a bullet in the head, was found near the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway coal docks. Three fingers of the left hand had been amputated.

According to a description by Detroit police, Lambert had the same three fingers missing. Other details in the description also matched the body.

Fingerprints are to be matched in an effort to make positive identification.

Here's Why Old Fayette County Infirmary Must Be Torn Down

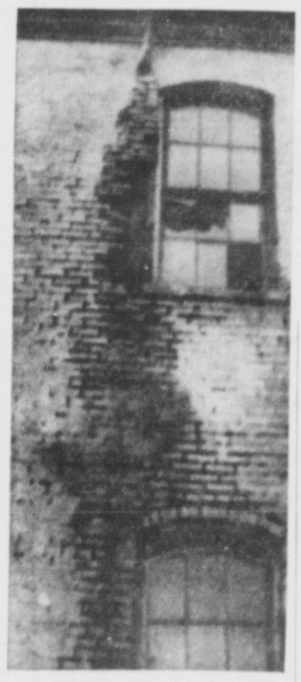

WALLS, MARRED BY WEATHER and seepage, and debris scattered throughout the basement give the impression of being in a dark medieval dungeon left to rot since the Crusades.

INCLEMENT WEATHER and trespassers have taken their toll of the laundry house in back of the old county infirmary. The roofing is as good as gone, the brick foundation has been laid bare, and holes have been punched in the walls.

County commissioners have decided to tear down the old county infirmary and the accompanying pictures show why.

Walls are crumbling, very few windows remain in the old structure and rubble is spread throughout, the results of destruction by weather and trespassers.

It is doubtful whether the 47 inmates who first lived in the building 89 years ago would even recognize what to them must have been a beautiful home.

Ohio Corn Yield Set At 60 Bushels to Acre

WASHINGTON (AP)—The agriculture department estimates that Ohio farmers will produce 204,600,000 bushels of corn this year on a yield of 60 bushels per acre. Other estimates of Ohio crops made in the department's semi-annual report Wednesday include: 38,876,000 bushels of soybeans on a yield of 26.5 bushels per acre; 17,375,000 pounds of tobacco on 1,337 pounds per acre; 315,000 tons of sugar beets at 15 tons per acre, and 3,100,000 bushels of apples. The burley tobacco crop was forecast at 14,415,000 pounds, as compared with 14,523,000 last year.

Juror Reports Effort To Exert Influence

LISBON, Ohio (AP)—A juror in the burglary trial of three former East Liverpool policemen Wednesday told Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard a neighbor had telephoned her and sought to influence her. Judge Buzzard ordered the trial continued and said there would be a full investigation of the report by Mrs. Mabel S. Stuckey when the trial has been concluded. The patrolmen, Ira Cunningham, Robert Carroll and Jerome Raimond, are accused of a 1952 hardware store burglary.

Tokyo Tower May Boost Suicide Rate

The Tokyo tower, higher than Paris' Eiffel Tower, claimed its first victim this month, 47 days before it was due to be officially opened. A 21-year-old thwarted lover leaped to his death.

In Japan, the most suicide-conscious country in the world, centuries of tradition have made jisatsu—suicide — the honorable way out—from a Samurai warrior classically carving himself to death with a sword to a housewife jumping in front of an electric train.

Two years ago, 21,778 tormented Japanese—59 a day—killed themselves. More than 20,000 have died willfully and violently every year since 1953, the world's highest rate.

"We have an aptitude for death," said a young Japanese. "I guess we just don't consider life too important. And here, unlike other countries, there is no disgrace in suicide."

Kamikaze pilots — some 5,000 deliberately killed themselves in human bomb attacks in World War II — started a new craze Blowing oneself up with dynamite was fashionable for a time after the war.

But less spectacular methods like poison, drowning, shooting or wrist slashing cause the majority deaths. Hari kiri—disemboweling by knife—is rare these days.

Mill Plans Expansion

CLEVELAND (AP)—Construction is to start this month on a $3,500,000 facility for loading and handling cold rolled sheets at the Cleveland works on the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

Turnpike Eyes Gate System On Crossovers

CLEVELAND (AP)—To eliminate wrong-way driving on the Ohio Turnpike, the Ohio Highway and turnpike Assn. has recommended that locked gates be installed on crossovers.

The crossover, used by emergency vehicles and turnpike patrolmen, span the depressed center strip of the toll road and connect the divided lanes.

The turnpike patrol said Wednesday that 34 arrests have been made this year for wrong way driving on the main roadways, in service plazas and at interchanges. Several drivers were warned for the same infraction, the patrol said.

Michael Desmond of Columbus, executive director of the organization which sponsored the Ohio Turnpike Act, stated Wednesday:

"If crossovers are necessary for patrolling and maintenance then these crossovers should have locked gates, with keys available only to highway patrolmen and maintenance drivers."

Seven persons were killed last week in a headon collision blamed on wrong-way driving.

Sidewalks Top Issue At Council Meeting

Sidewalk problems plagued City Councilmen Wednesday night as complaints from residents on S. High St. forced them to reassert their acceptance of a six-week old specification, and discussion of a sidewalk ordinance caused it to be thrown out.

Seventeen residents on the east side of High St. from Newberry to Elm St. petitioned Council to change the specification of sidewalks to be laid on their property from five to four feet.

They also asked why the sidewalks are to be laid only on the west side of the street.

Councilman Joe Loudner said a survey was taken to determine where the sidewalks should be laid for children going to the new Belle-Aire school, and Council decided they use that side of the street most.

* * *

THE CITY BOARD of Education suggested laying a five foot sidewalk, and Council recently approved that as a minimum width for new sidewalks throughout the city, he said.

After further discussion and questions from some of the residents involved, Councilman Walter Morrow said Council is trying to improve the city and has spent many hours discussing this problem.

If Council would make an exception for this case, the same argument would come up every time a sidewalk was to be laid in the city, he said.

Council then took a vote to decide whether the specification should be changed and defeated the motion 6-0.

* * *

THE OTHER ORDINANCE involving sidewalks would have given the city manager discretionary measures for ordering the laying of sidewalks in new subdivisions or in old subdivisions where new areas were being developed.

City Solicitor William Junk said Council could not enact a law giving discretionary powers, so the ordinance was scrapped. Further study of the situation will be made, Council said.

* * *

NO RESIDENTS offered comments during the public hearing on the new ordinance establishing rules and regulations for the platting and subdividing of land within the city.

Council read the ordinance for the first time.

Among its provisions, the ordinance sets up the minimum width of streets as: primary, 100 feet; secondary, 80 feet; minor, 50 ft; alleys, 20 feet; and easements, 5 feet.

It also states that minor residential streets shall be designed in a jogging pattern to discourage use by non-local traffic.

Another provision of the law is that it will apply within the city and three miles beyond the corporate limits.

The city manager explained to Council that state law sets up this provision so the city can protect land that could be annexed.

* * *

IN OTHER ACTION, Council decided to put in four stop signs at Elm and Willard Sts., instead of a stop light as discussed at the last meeting.

Council also established a $5 police department fee for mailed requests for accident information.

An Oct. 22 ordinance hiring former City Manager James F. Parkinson as city engineer on a fee basis was repealed after Parkinson said his pension was being held up because retirement officials objected to the words "hereby employed" in his contract with the city.

* * *

COUNCILMAN LOUDNER said he has received complaints of a hedge on the southwest corner of Circle Ave. and High Sts. which obstructs drivers' views as they look for traffic on Circle Ave.

City Manager David Foell said a city ordinance prohibits the growth or construction of anything which would obstruct the view on a diagonal line 15 feet on each side of the corner.

Foel said the traffic light at Elm and Highs Sts. should be in use by the end of December.

Farm Bureau Resolutions Outline Policy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation has adopted a legislative policy statement which among other thing calls for more worker-control of unions and boosts in state sales taxes.

The federation at the windup of its convention Wednesday also re-elected all officers including Ferris Owen of Newark, federation vice president. Earlier this week Owen was ousted as chairman of the Policy Development Committee for expressing personal opposition to the so-called right-to-work amendment while the federation was taking a neutral stand on the issue. Voters rejected the proposed amendment at the polls Nov. 3.

The bureau's policy statement deplored labor corruption and recommended federal legislation which would assure union members fair and democratic procedures as the best safeguard of their individual rights."

The statement made no detailed recommendations for labor legislation and delegates on the floor deleted from the original proposals one that would require unions to make periodic reports on their activities to the U. S. Department of Labor.

The federation also approved a recommendation that, if further revenue is required by the state for its operations, the state sales tax be boosted from 3 to 4 per cent, the one cent tax on the first 9 to 40 cents of sales be reinstated and 3.2 beer be taxed at the same rate as high-powered beer.

Autopsy Set in Death Of New-Born Baby

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — An autopsy was planned today in the death of a new-born baby girl whose body was found along Indian Creek, three miles west of Oxford. Dr. Garret J. Boone, Butler County coroner, said it apparently was a "full term" baby and had been born alive. Three schoolboys found the body near the end of an old covered bridge.

Course in First Aid Begun by Red Cross

Another course in first aid was started under sponsorship of the Red Cross in the American Legion Hall here Wednesday night. This class is primarily for Camp Fire Girl and Scout leaders. The two-hour classes will be held once a week for 10 weeks. James Yates is the instructor.

Those who registered for the course already have had the basic, or fundamental, course; this is the advanced course.

Among other things, the class will study five different methods of artificial respiration. The course also will incorporate most of the principals given in the disaster survival booklet distributed in connection with Civil Defense.

Yates, a native of England, is the Western Union Telegraph agent here. Records show that he has given first aid training to 644 here since World War I.

At this first meeting were four Scout leaders, two Cub den mothers and four advanced Scouts. Camp Fire Girls leaders did not make it this week but several have said they will attend the coming nine classes.

Farm Bureau Names Trustees

The trustees elected are:

District 2, Bruce Roadarmel, Bowling Green; 4, Ralph Littler, Rt. 1, Andover; 5, C. E. McCleery, Van Wert; 7, Carl F. Seiter, Marion; 0, Carl E. Ruffener, Suffield; 12, Ferris Owen, Newark; 16, Bennett Swingle, Rt. 1, Philop and 22, Golden Canaday, Northup.

Delaware was the first state to ratify the U. S. Constitution.

8th Graders' Campout Is Rather Short

CLEVELAND (AP) — Stanley and Peter wanted to get away from it all, so they cut their eighth-grade classes at St. Peter's School, took a taxi to a spot near Chagrin Falls and camped out.

They needed a taxi. They took along a bow and arrows, bed rolls, cook stove, portable radio, fishing box and tackle an ax and a knife.

And of course they had $200 borrowed from the home where Stanley lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bleich, at 1606 E. 38th St. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stipanovitch Sr., Peter's parents, live a few houses down the street at 1634.

The camp, where the boys built a lean-to, was well-stocked with canned goods, according to Chagrin Falls Patrolman Paul D. Kaschalk, who spotted the boys Wednesday after they had been gone from their homes for a day.

A third runaway was indirectly responsible for the interruption of an idyllic camping trip. When Kaschalk, who had been alerted by Cleveland police, saw the pair, they were on their way to buy dog food in town for the third runaway, a German shepherd.

Stanley still had $138 left of the $200.

The Church of Sweden has now voted to permit women to become ordained ministers.

Markets Feature Lamb, Pork Cuts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Leg of lamb and a bewildering array of pork cuts are featured by supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend. If the shopper in your house is budget conscious, look for one of these items on the dinner table.

Pork specials includes fresh and smoked hams and picnic hams, pork shoulder, ribs, and loin, bacon and sausage in bulk and link form. Chuck roast is about the only beef featured widely.

Judging from wholesale prices, lamb will remain a bargain since it was lower at wholesale this week. Hams, bellies (source of bacon), steers and hogs were higher.

Eggs up two to four cents a pound in some areas and off two cents in others.

Supplies of fresh vegetables are holding up well. Cabbage is one of the best buys. Other outstanding buys are endive, escarole, lettuce and potatoes. Good buys are snap beans, broccoli, carrots, cauliflower, yellow and green squash and onions.

Eggplant is down a bit, making it a fairly good buy along with celery, cucumbers, sweet corn and sweet potatoes.

Frozen orange juice is expected to stay costly this winter, a carryover from last year's Florida freeze. Juice freezers there contracted for fruit at prices almost double year-ago levels and cold storage stocks in late October totaled only 19 million gallons, off 10 millions from 1957.

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — A $54,000 fire destroyed a hardware and supply store in nearby Meredith last night. No one was injured. Firemen said the blaze apparently started from sparks given off by an acetylene torch.

Sidewalks Top Issue At Council Meeting

Sidewalk problems plagued City Councilmen Wednesday night as complaints from residents on S. High St. forced them to reassert their acceptance of a six-week old specification, and discussion of a sidewalk ordinance caused it to be thrown out.

Seventeen residents on the east side of High St. from Newberry to Elm St. petitioned Council to change the specification of sidewalks to be laid on their property from five to four feet.

They also asked why the sidewalks are to be laid only on the west side of the street.

Councilman Joe Loudner said a survey was taken to determine where the sidewalks should be laid for children going to the new Belle-Aire school, and Council decided they use that side of the street most.

* * *

THE CITY BOARD of Education suggested laying a five foot sidewalk, and Council recently approved that as a minimum width for new sidewalks throughout the city, he said.

After further discussion and questions from some of the residents involved, Councilman Walter Morrow said Council is trying to improve the city and has spent many hours discussing this problem.

If Council would make an exception for this case, the same argument would come up every time a sidewalk was to be laid in the city, he said.

Council then took a vote to decide whether the specification should be changed and defeated the motion 6-0.

* * *

THE OTHER ORDINANCE involving sidewalks would have given the city manager discretionary measures for ordering the laying of sidewalks in new subdivisions or in old subdivisions where new areas were being developed.

City Solicitor William Junk said Council could not enact a law giving discretionary powers, so the ordinance was scrapped. Further study of the situation will be made, Council said.

* * *

NO RESIDENTS offered comments during the public hearing on the new ordinance establishing rules and regulations for the platting and subdividing of land within the city.

Council read the ordinance for the first time.

Among its provisions, the ordinance sets up the minimum width of streets as: primary, 100 feet; secondary, 80 feet; minor, 50 ft; alleys, 20 feet; and easements, 5 feet.

It also states that minor residential streets shall be designed in a jogging pattern to discourage use by non-local traffic.

Another provision of the law is that it will apply within the city and three miles beyond the corporate limits.

The city manager explained to Council that state law sets up this provision so the city can protect land that could be annexed.

* * *

IN OTHER ACTION, Council decided to put in four stop signs at Elm and Willard Sts., instead of a stop light as discussed at the last meeting.

Council also established a $5 police department fee for mailed requests for accident information.

An Oct. 22 ordinance hiring former City Manager James F. Parkinson as city engineer on a fee basis was repealed after Parkinson said his pension was being held up because retirement officials objected to the words "hereby employed" in his contract with the city.

* * *

COUNCILMAN LOUDNER said he has received complaints of a hedge on the southwest corner of Circle Ave. and High Sts. which obstructs drivers' views as they look for traffic on Circle Ave.

City Manager David Foell said a city ordinance prohibits the growth or construction of anything which would obstruct the view on a diagonal line 15 feet on each side of the corner.

Foel said the traffic light at Elm and Highs Sts. should be in use by the end of December.

Farm Bureau Resolutions Outline Policy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation has adopted a legislative policy statement which among other thing calls for more worker-control of unions and boosts in state sales taxes.

The federation at the windup of its convention Wednesday also re-elected all officers including Ferris Owen of Newark, federation vice president. Earlier this week Owen was ousted as chairman of the Policy Development Committee for expressing personal opposition to the so-called right-to-work amendment while the federation was taking a neutral stand on the issue. Voters rejected the proposed amendment at the polls Nov. 3.

The bureau's policy statement deplored labor corruption and recommended federal legislation which would assure union members fair and democratic procedures as the best safeguard of their individual rights."

The statement made no detailed recommendations for labor legislation and delegates on the floor deleted from the original proposals one that would require unions to make periodic reports on their activities to the U. S. Department of Labor.

The federation also approved a recommendation that, if further revenue is required by the state for its operations, the state sales tax be boosted from 3 to 4 per cent, the one cent tax on the first 9 to 40 cents of sales be reinstated and 3.2 beer be taxed at the same rate as high-powered beer.

Autopsy Set in Death Of New-Born Baby

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — An autopsy was planned today in the death of a new-born baby girl whose body was found along Indian Creek, three miles west of Oxford. Dr. Garret J. Boone, Butler County coroner, said it apparently was a "full term" baby and had been born alive. Three schoolboys found the body near the end of an old covered bridge.

Course in First Aid Begun by Red Cross

Another course in first aid was started under sponsorship of the Red Cross in the American Legion Hall here Wednesday night. This class is primarily for Camp Fire Girl and Scout leaders. The two-hour classes will be held once a week for 10 weeks. James Yates is the instructor.

Those who registered for the course already have had the basic, or fundamental, course; this is the advanced course.

Among other things, the class will study five different methods of artificial respiration. The course also will incorporate most of the principals given in the disaster survival booklet distributed in connection with Civil Defense.

Yates, a native of England, is the Western Union Telegraph agent here. Records show that he has given first aid training to 644 here since World War I.

At this first meeting were four Scout leaders, two Cub den mothers and four advanced Scouts. Camp Fire Girls leaders did not make it this week but several have said they will attend the coming nine classes.

Farm Bureau Names Trustees

District 2, Bruce Roadarmel, Bowling Green; 4, Ralph Littler, Rt. 1, Andover; 5, C. E. McCleery, Van Wert; 7, Carl F. Seiter, Marion; O, Carl E. Ruffener, Suffield; 12, Ferris Owen, Newark; 16, Bennett Swingle, Rt. 1, Philop and 22, Golden Canaday, Northup.

Delaware was the first state to ratify the U. S. Constitution.

8th Graders' Campout Is Rather Short

CLEVELAND (AP) — Stanley and Peter wanted to get away from it all, so they cut their eighth-grade classes at St. Peter's School, took a taxi to a spot near Chagrin Falls and camped out.

They needed a taxi. They took along a bow and arrows, bed rolls, cook stove, portable radio, fishing box and tackle an ax and a knife.

And of course they had $200 borrowed from the home where Stanley lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bleich, at 1606 E. 38th St. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stipanovitch Sr., Peter's parents, live a few houses down the street at 1634.

People . . . Places . . . and Things

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

Origin of names of some of the roads and streams in the county is interesting.

If you have any doubts as to why the Prairie Rd. was so named it is an easy matter to explain, for when the road was laid out in the early days, it passed through some of the prairie land where big blue stem grass and other prairie grasses grew. Buffaloes and other wild animals found things very much to their liking there.

At two or three places along the road, there was real prairie-like land, and the road was given its name as a result.

In other words the road came by its name just as naturally as Sugar Creek did because of the great number of sugar maple trees which were found along its course. Rattlesnake Creek was so named because of the large number of massasaugas, "pygmy" or "prairie" rattlesnakes which have infested the valley probably for hundreds of years.

Many roads and small streams were named after some of the pioneer families who were large land owners along the roads and creeks.

THOSE STURDY OAKS

There are more reasons than one why, down through the years, we often heard oak trees referred to as "sturdy oaks."

Not only are the trees usually of large size, but the wood is hard, "the trees firmly rooted," the limbs are strong and usually well attached to the trunk and as, a whole, the tree withstands ordinary storms without being affected.

But right now the oak trees are about the only ones retaining most of their leaves, and such is the case year after year, for the leaves are heavier and more securely fastened to the twigs than most other leaves, and this accentuates their ruggedness and adds to their prestige as "sturdy oaks."

* * *

OLD IRON BRIDGES

Most of the old iron bridges in Fayette County came from the Oregonia Bridge Co. factory at Wilmington, or other Ohio factories.

However there are some exceptions, and the 70-foot span over East Fork of Paint Creek, on the Brock (or Woods) Rd., in Paint Township was made by the Jackson Bridge Co. of Jackson, Mich.

The span has stood for approximately 75 years, and is one of the lighter bridges with high superstructure so prevalent at the time it was erected.

Many of the high superstructure bridges have given way to modern structures in recent years, and the latest one is over Main Paint on Route 724 (State Rd) which was torn out during the last two weeks, after a new bridge, with low superstructure, was opened to traffic.

The abutments of this old bridge were huge sandstone blocks, apparently quarried in Hocking or Fairfield County, hauled to Washington C. H. on the Pennsylvania Railroad and then by wagon to the place where they were used.

* * *

CARPET OF GOLD

Within a matter of a few hours, a carpet of gold covered the ground under these trees, and as the day advanced the carpet grew to several inches in thickness.

It was one of the most beautiful sights of the fall, and was somewhat of a grand finale to the autumn show. The colors were greatly enjoyed by many people who are lovers of the beautiful and things worthwhile.

* * *

COAL ON THE MOVE

Once more I notice many trucks heavily loaded with Jackson County coal moving through the city to points north and northwest - - chiefly Springfield and Dayton.

These trucks carry many tons of "black diamonds" and some, I notice, are piled dangerously high. If one of the chunks, weighing up to 50 pounds, would fall from the vehicle and crash into a passing automobile, someone might be killed.

However most of the haulers make certain that the coal is securely placed in the truck so that none can roll off.

Doctor, 83, Under Knife 91st Time

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Emil H. Grubbe, internationally noted physician, underwent his 91st operation Tuesday for cancerous burns suffered more than 50 years ago when he became the world's first scientist to use X rays in human medicine.

Dr. Grubbe, 83, whose pioneer work led to saving or prolonging millions of lives, was reported making satisfactory progress after the 1½-hour operation.

Dr. Grubbe, who retired from active practice in 1949, has taught more than 7,000 physicians how to use X rays for healing purposes.

In 1951, the year book of the American Roentgen Ray Society credited Dr. Grubbe as the first to use X rays in treatments.

As a young physicist, he used a beam of X rays to treat a woman cancer patient in Chicago in 1896. This was only a few months after Wilhelm Roentgen, a German physicist, discovered that invisible penetrating X rays could be produced by sending an electrical charge through a vacuum tube. Roentgen at the time regarded the X ray as a valuable aid in diagnosis.

U.S. Polio Total Lowest Since '42

WASHINGTON (AP) — There were 5,485 polio cases in the United States in 1957.

The revised final figure made public today by the Public Health Service is the lowest annual total since 1942 when the court was 4,167.

The new total compares with an earlier provisional figure of 5,894 based on weekly reports from the state health departments. The service said it appeared there were 409 cases originally reported as polio, in which the diagnosis could not be confirmed.

ELLIX McCOY

ELLIX McCOY is being sought by the FBI for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for the crime of murder.

On Jan. 7, 1955, a Grand Jury of the State of Florida indicted McCoy for first degree murder. His alleged victim is said to have been brutally stabbed to death on Jan. 2, 1955, in Fort Myers, Fla. McCoy is believed to have fled from the State of Florida, and on Feb. 8, 1955, the FBI was requested to assist in locating him.

A complaint was filed before a U. S. Commissioner at Sarasota, Fla., on Feb. 8, 1955, charging McCoy with fleeing from the State of Florida to avoid prosecution for the crime of murder. A warrant for his arrest was issued on the same date.

With aliases including Alex McCoy, Ellix Mack McCoy, Mack McCoy, "Buddy," "Elder," "Little Buddy," and "Preacher," the fugitive has been employed as a woodyard and junkyard operator.

McCoy may be armed and should be considered dangerous. His criminal record includes convictions for voluntary manslaughter, assault to murder and gambling.

Origin of names of some of the roads and streams in the county is interesting.

If you have any doubts as to why the Prairie Rd. was so named it is an easy matter to explain, for when the road was laid out in the early days, it passed through some of the prairie land where big blue stem grass and other prairie grasses grew. Buffaloes and other wild animals found things very much to their liking there.

At two or three places along the road, there was real prairie-like land, and the road was given its name as a result.

In other words the road came by its name just as naturally as Sugar Creek did because of the great number of sugar maple trees which were found along its course. Rattlesnake Creek was so named because of the large number of massasaugas, "pygmy" or "prairie" rattlesnakes which have infested the valley probably for hundreds of years.

Paint Creek obtained its name from the red and yellow ochre (impure iron ore) along the banks of the streams at places in Ross County. This caused the water at the edges of the stream to be colored, like paint.

Many roads and small streams were named after some of the pioneer families who were large land owners along the roads and creeks.

THOSE STURDY OAKS

There are more reasons than one why, down through the years, we often heard oak trees referred to as "sturdy oaks."

Not only are the trees usually of large size, but the wood is hard, "the trees firmly rooted," the limbs are strong and usually well attached to the trunk and as, a whole, the tree withstands ordinary storms without being affected.

But right now the oak trees are about the only ones retaining most of their leaves, and such is the case year after year, for the leaves are heavier and more securely fastened to the twigs than most other leaves, and this accentuates their ruggedness and adds to their prestige as "sturdy oaks."

OLD IRON BRIDGES

Most of the old iron bridges in Fayette County came from the Oregonia Bridge Co. factory at Wilmington, or other Ohio factories.

However there are some exceptions, and the 70-foot span over East Fork of Paint Creek, on the Brock (or Woods) Rd., in Paint Township was made by the Jackson Bridge Co. of Jackson, Mich.

The span has stood for approximately 75 years, and is one of the lighter bridges with high superstructure so prevalent at the time it was erected.

Many of the high superstructure bridges have given way to modern structures in recent years, and the latest one is over Main Paint on Route 724 (State Rd) which was torn out during the last two weeks, after a new bridge, with low superstructure, was opened to traffic.

The abutments of this old bridge were huge sandstone blocks, apparently quarried in Hocking or Fairfield County, hauled to Washington C. H. on the Pennsylvania Railroad and then by wagon to the place where they were used.

CARPET OF GOLD

Following the heavy freeze Friday morning, it was interesting to see how rapidly most of the foliage fell from some of the maple trees.

Within a matter of a few hours, a carpet of gold covered the ground under these trees, and as the day advanced the carpet grew to several inches in thickness.

It was one of the most beautiful sights of the fall, and was somewhat of a grand finale to the autumn show. The colors were greatly enjoyed by many people who are lovers of the beautiful and things worthwhile.

COAL ON THE MOVE

Once more I notice many trucks heavily loaded with Jackson County coal moving through the city to points north and northwest - - chiefly Springfield and Dayton.

These trucks carry many tons of "black diamonds" and some, I notice, are piled dangerously high. If one of the chunks, weighing up to 50 pounds, would fall from the vehicle and crash into a passing automobile, someone might be killed.

However most of the haulers make certain that the coal is securely placed in the truck so that none can roll off.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD.

Doctor, 83, Under Knife 91st Time

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Emil H. Grubbe, internationally noted physician, underwent his 91st operation Tuesday for cancerous burns suffered more than 50 years ago when he became the world's first scientist to use X rays in human medicine.

Dr. Grubbe, 83, whose pioneer work led to saving or prolonging millions of lives, was reported making satisfactory progress after the 1½-hour operation.

Surgeons operated on the remaining three fingers on his right hand, and did additional work on his nose which has been practically destroyed by the seeds of malignancy scattered through his body by his early experiments.

Dr. Grubbe's upper lip, his jaw, left hand and most of the right side of his face have been eaten away.

Dr. Grubbe, who retired from active practice in 1949, has taught more than 7,000 physicians how to use X rays for healing purposes.

In 1951, the year book of the American Roentgen Ray Society credited Dr. Grubbe as the first to use X rays in treatments.

As a young physicist, he used a beam of X rays to treat a woman cancer patient in Chicago in 1896. This was only a few months after Wilhelm Roentgen, a German physicist, discovered that invisible penetrating X rays could be produced by sending an electrical charge through a vacuum tube. Roentgen at the time regarded the X ray as a valuable aid in diagnosis.

U.S. Polio Total Lowest Since '42

WASHINGTON (AP) — There were 5,485 polio cases in the United States in 1957.

The revised final figure made public today by the Public Health Service is the lowest annual total since 1942 when the court was 4,167.

The new total compares with an earlier provisional figure of 5,894 based on weekly reports from the state health departments. The service said it appeared there were 409 cases originally reported as polio, in which the diagnosis could not be confirmed.

County School Board Audit Is Completed

Examiner Places Stamp of Approval On '56-'58 Records

The Fayette County Board of Education had expenses of $43,057.47 from July 17, 1956, through last Oct. 17, according to an audit report released today by State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

The balance from the preceding audit and receipts during the current audit period totaled $54,195.43, the report states.

There are no finding for recovery or adjustment.

All financial transactions have been recorded properly, the state examiner reports. It was pointed out that $3,340.59 was expended for legal counsel during the period covered by the examination.

The board's acceptance of the transfer of the former Pickaway county New Holland local school district to Miami Trace school district was noted.

MEMBERS of the school board are Floyd Hoppes, New Martinsburg; Eugene Avey, and Carroll Ritenour, of near Jefferson ville; Cloyd Craig, of near Bloomingburg; H. B. Lightle, of near Mt. Sterling.

W. J. Hilty is the superintendent, Jean M. Everhart is the secretary, and Hattie B. Pinkerton is the attendance officer.

White Collar Strike Closing Up Chrysler

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. moved today to halt all its new car production because of a strike by 8,000 salaried office workers and engineers.

The halt order, affecting all assembly plants and many company supplier plants, meant a layoff of 40,800 of Chrysler's 70,000 production workers.

Chrysler, disclosing its shutdown plans Wednesday, said it was impossible to resume normal operation because of strike interference with production and the routing and handling of materials.

Today was the third day of the white collar workers' walkout over contract demands which were unsettled when Chrysler and the United Auto Workers reached agreement on a national contract five weeks ago.

A total of 16 plants employing 24,000 men were shut down Wednesday. These included all eight auto and truck assembly plants in Detroit and Evansville, Ind.; Newark, Del., and Los Angeles.

The UAW international apparently was ineffective in a request to strikers to abstain from picketing at the time of shift changes so as to keep plants operating.

Main strike issues bore on seniority rights, union demands for wage equity on various jobs, and a wage progression demand.

Chrysler said the pay on the various jobs ranges from $319 a month for messengers and mail boys up to $903 a month for project design men. Forty per cent of the salaried force is paid more than $500 a month, the company said.

After 4 Years Freedom, Ohio Con Back in Prison

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Escaped Ohio life-termed Buryl Rodgers, arrested Nov. 1 at Ravenna, Mich., after four years of freedom, has been returned to prison.

Rodgers, 50, was turned over to Ohio authorities Tuesday.

Sheriff Arnold O. Pigorsh said Rodgers escaped in April, 1954, from the London, Ohio, prison Farm after serving 16 years of a life sentence. Rodgers had been convicted with two companions in an armed robbery and slaying of a milk truck driver.

The escapee was living with a 22-year-old bride of a few months and engaged as a construction worker under the name of John Morris when he was arrested by federal agents and county law officers.

In 1891, more than two-thirds of the population in Canada lived in rural areas; today two-thirds live in urban areas.

'Green' Sophs Now Sparkling On Gridiron

Northwestern, Iowa Players Cited as Outstanding Examples

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Those green September sophomores, their inexperience matching their oft-time unpredictable play, are coming of age. In some cases they have turned into one-man wrecking crews on college gridirons each Saturday.

Thornton took over the quarterbacking of Northwestern's Wildcats and steered them to four straight victories, and an overall 5-2 record so far. This was basically the same club that lost all its games in 1957.

The 19-year old dental student has been tagged the best quarterback in the Big Ten over such stalwarts as Iowa's Randy Duncan and Ohio State's Frank Kreblas. He was chosen as Back of the Week by The Associated Press for passing for two touchdowns, kicking one point after touchdown and passing for two more in the Wildcats 21-0 victory over Ohio State two weeks ago.

Fleming, a skimpy 178 pounds, nudged into the Big Ten champs backfield and added the power that the Hawks needed when Capt. John Nocera was hobbled with injuries. He has scored four touchdowns in the last two games, all on runs of more than 47 yards.

Down South they are talking about Norm Snead, the soph quarterback of the Wake Forest Deacons. He made his mark early, throwing three touchdown passes Sept. 20 when the Deacons romped against Maryland 34-0.

Snead was busy Wednesday as Coach Paul Amen had his offense working on a strong-passing attack for Saturday's game with Duke.

Richie Mayo has guided the Air Force Academy into bowl contention with six victories and a tie with Iowa. His biggest day came Nov. 1 when he took the Falcons on a 72-yard touchdown march in the final two minutes that brought a 33-29 victory over Oklahoma State. Mayo completed seven passes during that jaunt.

Up at Harvard, Charlie Ravenel, the Crimson's daredevil quarterback, has the Ivy League coaches raving. His offensive prowess was proven when he scored two TDs, one on a 52-yard run, and set up a third in a 20-0 victory over Lehigh last month.

Notre Dame had good luck with two of its fledglings. Bill "Red" Mack gained a berth in the Irish backfield and is the fastest man of the team. He gained 123 yards last Saturday in a losing cause against Pitt on the receiving end of George Izo's passes. One was a 75-yard play that set up a TD.

Center Myron Pottios, lost for the season with a shoulder separation, beat out letterman Bob Scholtz for the job in September and bulwarked the Notre Dame line until injured against Pitt.

Army found a suitable replacement for fullback Harry Walters when he missed two games with a bum ankle. Don Bonko, a third classmen or soph, took over the chores in a 14-14 tie with Pitt and a 68-6 victory over Colgate, and played a good part of the 14-7 victory over Rice last Saturday.

Joe Matalavage, a second year man at the Naval Academy, filled in for the injured Ray Wellborn as Navy fullback against Maryland last Saturday and reeled off 102 yards, more than the entire Maryland offense could generate. The Tars rolled over their in trastate rivals 40-14.

Learning Pro Game Is Hard In Cincinnati

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They've won only one of eight this season after Wednesday night's 116-115 defeat by the Syracuse Nations, who trailed by 11 at the half. It was the only game scheduled.

Still, the Royals are improving. They're losing by less. None of their other defeats was that close. If it hadn't been for Dolph Schayes' 30 points in the second half, which set three Cincinnati Gardens records, the losing streak might have been forgotten.

Even Schayes wasn't enough for the Nats. They needed Larry Costello's stolen ball basket with four seconds left to win it, moving within a half game of first place New York in the Eastern Division. The Royals are last in the Western, but they're only four games out of first.

Schayes, who tied Cincinnati's Jack Twyman for scoring honors with 32, bettered the Cincinnati scoring record for one half set just last Sunday by Philadelphia's Paul Arizin with 26. Schayes' 12-for-12 at the foul line in the last quarter broke the 9-for-11 record he held with Detroit's George Yardley. His 18 points in the final period bettered the record of 17 held by three players.

Alumni 'Boys' Survive Rugged Scrimmage for Game Here Friday Night

The two teams of Washington C. H. High School alumni bumped heads— and not very gently— in a scrimmage at the end of Wednesday evening's three - hour practice session and there was not a single major casualty.

Of course, by Thursday morning a good many of the 45 who were there went about their daily routines a little slower. They might try to step up the cadence and move without showing the stiffness, but they couldn't conceal the soreness entirely. Plenty of arnica must have been used secretly.

But they were happy; it was all for the love of their favorite sport — football. Then, too, they hope to raise a little money for the WHS Athletic Assn. treasury when the Whites and the Blues (black and blue might be more appropriate) collide at 8 p. m. Friday in the second annual football game in the Gardner Park stadium.

• • •

THE PRACTICE session started with the two squads working out on the high school practice field, where they went through some conditioning exercises and drill on basic plays. Later, when darkness descended, they went to the stadium field for a scrimmage that lasted an hour.

Domenico said he hoped to get into the game with the rest of the "boys" Friday night. The 6 - foot, 200-pounder wants to play on the defense for the Blues.

Merritt, who was quite a lineman in high school here, at the University of Cincinnati and with the rugged San Diego Marine team, has not committed himself on his playing intentions.

• • •

BOTH TEAMS will use the same basic straight T offense, the same as the WHS Lions used all season. But, there were indications in the Wednesday night scrimmage that the Whites will attempt to confuse the Blue defenders by shifting to an unbalanced line frequently.

The lineups are still in the formative stages, but some hint was given as to the probable backfields.

Domenico and Merritt commented after the first scrimmage that "these boys have not forgotten how to block and tackle. . . . this is going to be a real football game. . . .it's not going to be any burlesque."

Army to Say 'No' To All Bowl Bids

WEST POINT, N. Y. (AP) — Army is not going to play in any post-season football bowl games regardless of its record.

The Cadets, who have won six and tied one of their seven games, have been under consideration by several bowl selection committees.

Senator Frost Wins Feature

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (Spl.) — Senator Frost, the world record holding Ohio trotter, added another batch of cash to his mounting bank roll at nearby Hollywood Park Wednesday.

The trotter, owned by Wayne Galvin of Wilmington and Ray Foster of Lima, grabbed the winner's share of the $10,000 Western Trot. He went the mile distance in 2:01.3, coming home the last quarter in 28 seconds.

The Senator won by four lengths with Lumber Along finishing second and Little Rocky Third. The Ohio entry was the pre-race favorite, paying $2.30, $2.10 and $2.10.

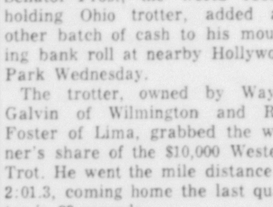

Massillon Grid Seed Planted Early

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — The sons of families in this hotbed of scholastic football will get their hands on footballs at a very early age this season.

Don Ahlstrom, president of the Tiger Booster Club, said Wednesday night 500 miniature rubber footballs have been presented to Massillon City Hospital. The footballs will go to all newborn boys. Ahlstrom said he hopes 500 will be sufficient for the year but more will be purchased if necessary.

The footballs are being presented as part of the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the booster club.

Snead Favored To Win in Havana Test

HAVANA (AP)—Sam Snead is the favorite and Julius Boros is the over-priced dark horse in the $45,000 Havana International Golf tournament opening today.

Money backing Boros became a cascade when the phlegmatic Indian-faced professional went on the odds board at 10-1 to win, 5-1 to finish second and 3-1 to take third.

Boros, whose record in the National Open the last six years compares with that of Ben Hogan and Cary Middlecoff, reported here fresh from victory in the Atlanta Open. He is playing top-flight confident golf and is hard to ignore.

Snead, who has won more than 100 tournaments and is perennial favorite in every one he enters, is short-priced at 4-1 to win, 2-1 for second and even money for third. If you want to bet Sammy to finish fourth you must put up two dollars to win one.

Behind Snead on the favorites list comes Bill Casper Jr. of Chula Vista, Calif., second on the year's money list, at 6-1 followed by Dow Finsterwald, the Professional Golfers Assn. champ, at 8-1.

Boros is bracketed with National Open champion Tommy Bolt at 10-1 and then comes a trio at 12-1 — Doug Ford, 1957 Masters champion, Art Wall Jr. and Lionel Hebert, 1957 PGA king.

Arizona Halfback Is Top Catcher

NEW YORK (AP) — When Arizona's Dave Hibbert snared 12 forward passes for 107 yards against Texas Tech Saturday, he became the best catcher in major college football.

Hibbert, 5-foot-9 halfback from Phoenix, has caught 46 passes, 10 more than his closest competitor, Ulmo Randle of Virginia, who led a week ago. He has accounted for 25.6 per cent of Arizona's total offense.

When the Arizona ace went on his spree against Texas Tech, he turned in the best record since Fordham's Ed Brown nabbed 15 passes against New York University six years ago.

Georgia Tech-Pitt Bowl Game Hinted

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Gator Bowl Selection Committee is leaning toward a game between a Southeastern Conference team and one from the East, Chairman Sam Wolfson said Wednesday.

That could mean Georgia Tech vs. Pittsburgh in the Dec. 27 football game. They met two years ago in one of the best Gator Bowl games ever played. Both have won 5, lost 2 and tied 1 with 2 more to play.

Browns' Brown Doubts His Play Actually Is Slowing

CLEVELAND (AP)—Has Jimmy Brown slowed down in the last two Cleveland football games?

"No, I don't think so," the 22-year-old fullback said. "At least I know I'm not doing anything different."

In Cleveland's last five games, the power-running Negro piled up 815 yards rushing and 14 touchdowns. In the two losses to the New York Giants and Detroit, Brown was limited to 113 yards and one TD, and 83 yards and no scores, respectively.

He was the National Football League's Rookie of the Year in 1957 when he led the league in rushing with 942 yards. Now, after seven games he has 1,011 yards and 15 touchdowns. The season records — both held by Steve Van Buren of the Philadelphia Eagles — are 1,146 yards and 18 touchdowns.

"I'm not pressing or thinking about any records," Brown said. "I just try to do my best every game. Those records will take care of themselves."

Brown has competed in track (as a high jumper and discus thrower mostly) and in basketball and lacrosse (picked on an All-America team while at Syracuse), in addition to baseball and football. He probably is one of the few athletes to be given All-America recognition in two different sports.

He must realize he's the hottest attraction in pro football, but Jimmy Brown hasn't lost his poise. He's got both feet on the ground.

What does he do for leisure?

"There isn't too much time during the football season. I get up at 8:30 in the morning, have to be at practice at 9:30. It takes me about five minutes to get there from my apartment.

"I go to the movies a few times a week, go shopping for clothes and anything else I may need, but most of my free time I listen to records. I like music—mostly jazz records, rhythm and blues, some dance tunes, but no classical records.

"On weekends, it's a different routine. I sleep until noon Saturday, try answering some of my fan letters (he and kicking specialist Lou Groza get the most on the team) and get to the hotel with the team at 6 or 6:30. Then I'm with the fellows until the game.

"I also read quite a bit, but nothing heavy. Mostly magazines and newspapers. I visit some friends around town quite a bit at nights but get to sleep early. Studying plays also takes up some time."

Last winter, Brown spent six months in the Army at Fort Benning, Ga.

"That did me a lot of good," he said. "The conditioning helped. I got to play basketball and did a lot of running."

In seven games this year Jimmy has averaged 6.7 yards per carry. That is pretty good in the pro league, but not quite as good as his average the first year he played fullback. When he was 14, a sophomore fullback at Manhasset (L.I.) High School, he averaged 7.4 yards. As a junior he moved to left halfback and hit 15.1, then in his senior year made 14.9.

He grew up on Long Island, but was not born there. His birthplace was Saint Simon's Island, just off the coast of Georgia. Born Feb. 17, 1936, he was the only child of Swinton and Theresa Brown.

He broke a basketball scoring record at Manhasset High, by making 55 points, and was above average in his classes. But it was in football that he shone. When he was graduated, the students voted to retire his number, 33.

Cage Coach Hanged In Effigy Before Season's Opener

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Eddie Melvin, basketball coach at the University of Toledo, was hanged in effigy Wednesday — and the cage season hasn't even opened.

Students said the deed was in protest of Melvin's move in kicking Guard Al Vann of Brooklyn, N. Y., off the squad Monday for disciplinary reasons.

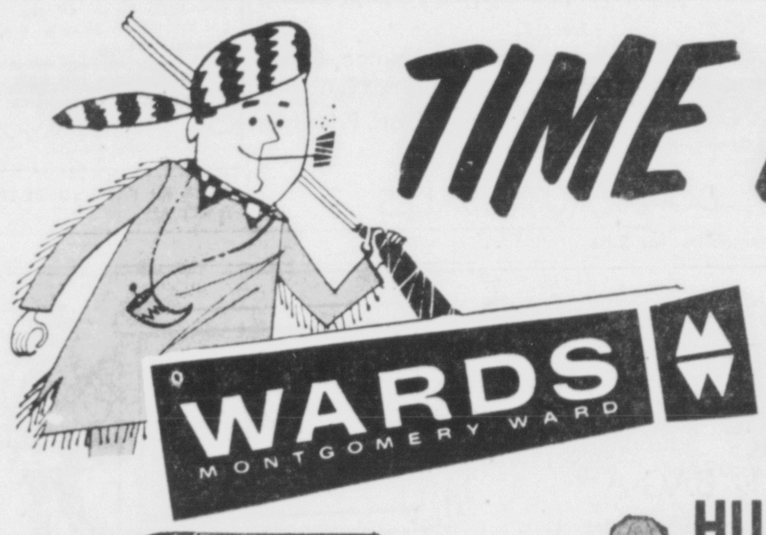

Vann, a senior, has been a defensive stalwart of the team and was the second highest scorer last season. Specific reasons for his ouster were not disclosed.

Toledo opens the basketball season Dec. 1 against Baldwin-Wallace.

Wilmington Is Added To Cage Tournament

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—Wilmington College of Ohio will replace Transylvania, Ky., in the City of Richmond Basketball Tournament Nov. 20-22. Other teams in the pre-season tournament are Franklin College, Anderson, Marion of Indianapolis, Concordia of Fort Wayne, Taylor, Earlham and Rio Grande, Ohio.

'Green' Sophs Now Sparkling On Gridiron

Northwestern, Iowa Players Cited as Outstanding Examples

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Those green September sophomores, their inexperience matching their oft-time unpredictable play, are coming of age. In some cases they have turned into one-man wrecking crews on college gridirons each Saturday.

Thornton took over the quarterbacking of Northwestern's Wildcats and steered them to four straight victories, and an overall 5-2 record so far. This was basically the same club that lost all its games in 1957.

The 19-year old dental student has been tagged the best quarterback in the Big Ten over such stalwarts as Iowa's Randy Duncan and Ohio State's Frank Kreblas. He was chosen as Back of the Week by The Associated Press for passing for two touchdowns, kicking one point after touchdown and passing for two more in the Wildcats 21-0 victory over Ohio State two weeks ago.

Fleming, a skimpy 178 pounds, nudged into the Big Ten champs backfield and added the power that the Hawks needed when Capt. John Nocera was hobbled with injuries. He has scored four touchdowns in the last two games, all on runs of more than 47 yards.

Down South they are talking about Norm Snead, the soph quarterback of the Wake Forest Deacons. He made his mark early, throwing three touchdown passes Sept. 20 when the Deacons romped against Maryland 34-0.

Snead was busy Wednesday as Coach Paul Amen had his offense working on a strong passing attack for Saturday's game with Duke.

Richie Mayo has guided the Air Force Academy into bowl contention with six victories and a tie with Iowa. His biggest day came Nov. 1 when he took the Falcons on a 72-yard touchdown march in the final two minutes that brought a 33-29 victory over Oklahoma State. Mayo completed seven passes during that jaunt.

Up at Harvard, Charlie Ravenel, the Crimson's daredevil quarterback, has the Ivy League coaches raving. His offensive prowess was proven when he scored two TDs, one on a 52-yard run, and set up a third in a 20-0 victory over Lehigh last month.

Notre Dame had good luck with two of its fledglings. Bill "Red" Mack gained a berth in the Irish backfield and is the fastest man of the team. He gained 123 yards last Saturday in a losing cause against Pitt on the receiving end of George Izo's passes. One was a 75-yard play that set up a TD.

Center Myron Pottios, lost for the season with a shoulder separation, beat out letterman Bob Scholtz for the job in September and bulwarked the Notre Dame line until injured against Pitt.

Army found a suitable replacement for fullback Harry Walters when he missed two games with a bum ankle. Don Bonko, a third classmen or soph, took over the chores in a 14-14 tie with Pitt and a 68-6 victory over Colgate, and played a good part of the 14-7 victory over Rice last Saturday.

Joe Matalavage, a second year man at the Naval Academy, filled in for the injured Ray Wellborn as Navy fullback against Maryland last Saturday and reeled off 102 yards, more than the entire Maryland offense could generate. The Tars rolled over their in trastate rivals 40-14.

Learning Pro Game Is Hard In Cincinnati

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cincinnati's kids are learning the pro game the hard way in the National Basketball Assn. The rookie Royals have lost six straight.

They've won only one of eight this season after Wednesday night's 116-115 defeat by the Syracuse Nations, who trailed by 11 at the half. It was the only game scheduled.

Still, the Royals are improving. They're losing by less. None of their other defeats was that close. If it hadn't been for Dolph Schayes' 30 points in the second half, which set three Cincinnati Gardens records, the losing streak might have been forgotten.

Even Schayes wasn't enough for the Nats. They needed Larry Costello's stolen ball basket with four seconds left to win it, moving within a half game of first place New York in the Eastern Division. The Royals are last in the Western, but they're only four games out of first.

Schayes, who tied Cincinnati's Jack Twyman for scoring honors with 32, bettered the Cincinnati scoring record for one half set just last Sunday by Philadelphia's Paul Arizin with 26. Schayes' 12-for-12 at the foul line in the last quarter broke the 9-for-11 record he held with Detroit's George Yardley. His 18 points in the final period bettered the record of 17 held by three players.

Alumni 'Boys' Survive Rugged Scrimmage for Game Here Friday Night

Well, it looks like those Old Grads can take it— and dish it out— as the saying goes.

The two teams of Washington C. H. High School alumni bumped heads— and not very gently— in a scrimmage at the end of Wednesday evening's three - hour practice session and there was not a single major casualty.

Of course, by Thursday morning a good many of the 45 who were there were about their daily routine a little slower. They might try to step up the cadence and move without showing the stiffness, but they couldn't conceal the soreness entirely. Plenty of arnica must have been used secretly.

But they were happy; it was all for the love of their favorite sport — football. Then, too, they hope to raise a little money for the WHS Athletic Assn. treasury when the Whites and the Blues (black and blue might be more appropriate) collide at 8 p. m. Friday in the second annual football game in the Gardner Park stadium.

* * *

THE PRACTICE session started with the two squads working out on the high school practice field, where they went through some conditioning exercises and drill on basic plays. Later, when darkness descended, they went to the stadium field for a scrimmage that lasted an hour.

Domenico said he hoped to get into the game with the rest of the "boys" Friday night. The 6 - foot, 200-pounder wants to play on the defense for the Blues.

Merritt, who was quite a lineman in high school here, at the University of Cincinnati and with the rugged San Diego Marine team, has not committed himself on his playing intentions.

* * *

BOTH TEAMS will use the same basic straight T offense, the same as the WHS Lions used all season. But, there were indications in the Wednesday night scrimmage that the Whites will attempt to confuse the Blue defenders by shifting to an unbalanced line frequently.

The lineups are still in the formative stages, but some hint was given as to the probable backfields.

Domenico and Merritt commented after the first scrimmage that "these boys have not forgotten how to block and tackle. . . . this is going to be a real football game. . . .it's not going to be any burlesque."

Army to Say 'No' To All Bowl Bids

WEST POINT, N. Y. (AP) — Army is not going to play in any post-season football bowl games regardless of its record.

The Cadets, who have won six and tied one of their seven games, have been under consideration by several bowl selection committees.

Senator Frost Wins Feature

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (Spl.) — Senator Frost, the world record holding Ohio trotter, added another batch of cash to his mounting bank roll at nearby Hollywood Park Wednesday.

The trotter, owned by Wayne Galvin of Wilmington and Ray Foster of Lima, grabbed the winner's share of the $10,000 Western Trot. He went the mile distance in 2:01.3, coming home the last quarter in 28 seconds.

The Senator won by four lengths with Lumber Along finishing second and Little Rocky Third. The Ohio entry was the pre-race favorite, paying $2.30, $2.10 and $2.10.

Massillon Grid Seed Planted Early

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — The sons of families in this hotbed of scholastic football will get their hands on footballs at a very early age this season.

Don Ahlstrom, president of the Tiger Booster Club, said Wednesday night 500 miniature rubber footballs have been presented to Massillon City Hospital. The footballs will go to all newborn boys. Ahlstrom said he hopes 500 will be sufficient for the year but more will be purchased if necessary.

The footballs are being presented as part of the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the booster club.

Snead Favored To Win in Havana Test

HAVANA (AP)—Sam Snead is the favorite and Julius Boros is the over-priced dark horse in the $45,000 Havana International Golf tournament opening today.

Money backing Boros became a cascade when the phlegmatic Indian-faced professional went on the odds board at 10-1 to win, 5-1 to finish second and 3-1 to take third.

Boros, whose record in the National Open the last six years compares with that of Ben Hogan and Cary Middlecoff, reported here fresh from victory in the Atlanta Open. He is playing top-flight confident golf and is hard to ignore.

Snead, who has won more than 100 tournaments and is perennial favorite in every one he enters, is short-priced at 4-1 to win, 2-1 for second and even money for third. If you want to bet Sammy to finish fourth you must put up two dollars to win one.

Behind Snead on the favorites list comes Bill Casper Jr. of Chula Vista, Calif., second on the year's money list, at 6-1 followed by Dow Finsterwald, the Professional Golfers Assn. champ, at 8-1.

Boros is bracketed with National Open champion Tommy Bolt at 10-1 and then comes a trio at 12-1 — Doug Ford, 1957 Masters champion, Art Wall Jr. and Lionel Hebert, 1957 PGA king.

Arizona Halfback Is Top Catcher

NEW YORK (AP) — When Arizona's Dave Hibbert snared 12 forward passes for 107 yards against Texas Tech Saturday, he became the best catcher in major college football.

Hibbert, 5-foot-9 halfback from Phoenix, has caught 46 passes, 10 more than his closest competitor, Ulmo Randle of Virginia, who led a week ago. He has accounted for 25.6 per cent of Arizona's total offense.

When the Arizona ace went on his spree against Texas Tech, he turned in the best record since Fordham's Ed Brown nabbed 15 passes against New York University six years ago.

Georgia Tech-Pitt Bowl Game Hinted

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Gator Bowl Selection Committee is leaning toward a game between a Southeastern Conference team and one from the East, Chairman Sam Wolfson said Wednesday.

That could mean Georgia Tech vs. Pittsburgh in the Dec. 27 football game. They met two years ago in one of the best Gator Bowl games ever played. Both have won 5, lost 2 and tied 1 with 2 more to play.

Browns' Brown Doubts His Play Actually Is Slowing

CLEVELAND (AP)—Has Jimmy Brown slowed down in the last two Cleveland football games?

"No, I don't think so," the 22-year-old fullback said. "At least I know I'm not doing anything different."

In Cleveland's last five games, the power-running Negro piled up 815 yards rushing and 14 touchdowns. In the two losses to the New York Giants and Detroit, Brown was limited to 113 yards and one TD, and 83 yards and no scores, respectively.

He was the National Football League's Rookie of the Year in 1957 when he led the league in rushing with 942 yards. Now, after seven games he has 1,011 yards and 15 touchdowns. The season records — both held by Steve Van Buren of the Philadelphia Eagles — are 1,146 yards and 18 touchdowns.

"I'm not pressing or thinking about any records," Brown said. "I just try to do my best every game. Those records will take care of themselves."

He is 6-foot-2, 228 pounds. His muscular body is packed with power from his 18-inch neck, massive shoulders, 32-inch waist, down to his steel-like thighs.

The something extra Jimmy has in comparison with most fullbacks is his speed and lightning start.

Brown has competed in track (as a high jumper and discus thrower mostly) and in basketball and lacrosse (picked on an All-America team while at Syracuse), in addition to baseball and football. He probably is one of the few athletes to be given All-America recognition in two different sports.

Brown doesn't drink or smoke and eats whatever he feels like eating.

The Browns joshingly call him "Gabby." He is quiet and seemingly shy but answers questions intelligently and courteously.

He must realize he's the hottest attraction in pro football, but Jimmy Brown hasn't lost his poise. He's got both feet on the ground.

Brown lives in a small apartment overlooking a park. He's single and lives by himself.

What does he do for leisure?

"There isn't too much time during the football season. I get up at 8:30 in the morning, have to be at practice at 9:30. It takes me about five minutes to get there from my apartment.

"I go to the movies a few times a week, go shopping for clothes and anything else I may need, but most of my free time I listen to records. I like music—mostly jazz records, rhythm and blues, some dance tunes, but no classical records.

"On weekends, it's a different routine. I sleep until noon Saturday, try answering some of my fan letters (he and kicking specialist Lou Groza get the most on the team) and get to the hotel with the team at 6 or 6:30. Then I'm with the fellows until the game.

"I also read quite a bit, but nothing heavy. Mostly magazines and newspapers. I visit some friends around town quite a bit at nights but get to sleep early. Studying plays also takes up some time."

"That did me a lot of good," he said. "The conditioning helped. I got to play basketball and did a lot of running."

In seven games this year Jimmy has averaged 6.7 yards per carry. That is pretty good in the pro league, but not quite as good as his average the first year he played fullback. When he was 14, a sophomore fullback at Manhasset (L.I.) High School, he averaged 7.4 yards. As a junior he moved to left halfback and hit 15.1, then in his senior year made 14.9.

He grew up on Long Island, but was not born there. His birthplace was Saint Simon's Island, just off the coast of Georgia. Born Feb. 17, 1936, he was the only child of Swinton and Theresa Brown.

He broke a basketball scoring record at Manhasset High, by making 55 points, and was above average in his classes. But it was in football that he shone. When he was graduated, the students voted to retire his number, 33.

Cage Coach Hanged In Effigy Before Season's Opener

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Eddie Melvin, basketball coach at the University of Toledo, was hanged in effigy Wednesday — and the cage season hasn't even opened.

Students said the deed was in protest of Melvin's move in kicking Guard Al Vann of Brooklyn, N. Y., off the squad Monday for disciplinary reasons.

Vann, a senior, has been a defensive stalwart of the team and was the second highest scorer last season. Specific reasons for his ouster were not disclosed.

Toledo opens the basketball season Dec. 1 against Baldwin-Wallace.

Wilmington Is Added To Cage Tournament

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—Wilmington College of Ohio will replace Transylvania, Ky., in the City of Richmond Basketball Tournament Nov. 20-22. Other teams in the preseason tournament are Franklin College, Anderson, Marion of Indianapolis, Concordia of Fort Wayne, Taylor, Earlham and Rio Grande, Ohio.

Turley Wins Cy Young Pitching Title

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Modest Bob Turley of the New York Yankees, who talks gentle as a lamb and pitches like a lion, thinks he was pretty lucky to be voted the Cy Young Memorial Award.

"When you consider the other good pitchers, like Warren Spahn and Bob Friend and Robin Roberts, well, I feel I was pretty lucky. Even to think I got one vote—"

The big Yankee right-hander commented at his suburban home Wednesday night after announcement from Boston that he was named the major league's outstanding pitcher during the 1958 season.

"I just tell you it's quite a thrill. It really means something to me" said the World Series hero who was the backbone of the Yankee pitching corps in the team's brilliant victory over Milwaukee last month.

"I can't say I dreamed about being the best pitcher but I dreamed about being one of the best," said Turley. "It's a tremendous feeling. It's the icing on the cake."

Turley, who got five votes, beat out Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves by one vote and Lew Burdette of the Braves and Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates by two. The balloting was by members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America, one in each of the 15 major league cities.

Barney Ross Sweats Out Pilot Debut

CHICAGO (AP) — Barney Ross bobbed his head from one side to the other. He clinched his fists and jabbed.

He shouted until he was hoarse. He jumped frequently to his feet.

Once again he was in the Chicago Stadium ring, only in reality he was sitting beside it.

But he just couldn't bring his protege, lightweight Frankie Ryff, through to victory. Young Eddie Perkins of Chicago, making his first major ring appearance, had too sharp combinations and scored a unanimous 10-round decision over the New York veteran.

There was plenty of blood, some of it being splattered into the press row and near Ross, who took over as Ryff's manager several months ago.

Under the five point must system, Judge John Bray scored the nationally televised bout 47-44, Judge Bill Doty 47-43 and Referee Frank Sikora 45-44. The Associated Press card favored Perkins 48-44.

Each weighed 138 pounds.

Fouts, Summers Lose Appeal to High Court

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court has turned down the appeals of George Fouts, 68, and Virgil (Doc) Summers from their convictions of the $4,500 burglary of the Citizens National Bank of Ansonia, Ohio, in 1946. The refusal of the high court to review their convictions means that Summers, now driving a laundry truck in Kansas City, and Fouts, in a Dayton jail charged with carrying a concealed weapon, will be sent to Leavenworth Penitentiary to begin serving their terms.

Utah Labels Ohio Boys With Delinquency

MANTI, Utah (AP) — Donald Vereshack, 14, and William Henry, 16, both of Mentor-on-the-Lake, Ohio, have been charged with delinquency. The pair were captured after police shot out the tires on their car during a 30-mile chase Monday. District Judge Merrill Hermansen said arrangements have been made for restitution of an estimated $200 damage to a highway patrol car at a roadblock. Police said the chase started when the boys drove away from a filling station without paying for a gas purchase.

Unionist To File Rap Against Chrysler Plant

CLEVELAND (AP)—An unfair labor practices complaint has been filed here against Chrysler Corp. by a union committeeman who says he was fired because of his union activity. The complaint was filed with the regional office of the National Labor Relations Board by Richard Debyns of Cuyahoga Falls. The firing, which the company said was for insubordination, touched off a wildcat strike at the Chrysler stamping plant at Twinsburg.

Turley Wins Cy Young Pitching Title

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Modest Bob Turley of the New York Yankees, who talks gentle as a lamb and pitches like a lion, thinks he was pretty lucky to be voted the Cy Young Memorial Award.

"When you consider the other good pitchers, like Warren Spahn and Bob Friend and Robin Roberts, well, I feel I was pretty lucky. Even to think I got one vote—"

The big Yankee right-hander commented at his suburban home Wednesday night after announcement from Boston that he was named the major league's outstanding pitcher during the 1958 season.

"I just tell you it's quite a thrill. It really means something to me" said the World Series hero who was the backbone of the Yankee pitching corps in the team's brilliant victory over Milwaukee last month.

"I can't say I dreamed about being the best pitcher but I dreamed about being one of the best," said Turley. "It's a tremendous feeling. It's the icing on the cake."

Turley, who got five votes, beat out Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves by one vote and Lew Burdette of the Braves and Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates by two. The balloting was by members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America, one in each of the 15 major league cities.

Barney Ross Sweats Out Pilot Debut

CHICAGO (AP) — Barney Ross bobbed his head from one side to the other. He clinched his fists and jabbed.

He shouted until he was hoarse. He jumped frequently to his feet.

Once again he was in the Chicago Stadium ring, only in reality he was sitting beside it.

But he just couldn't bring his protege, lightweight Frankie Ryff, through to victory. Young Eddie Perkins of Chicago, making his first major ring appearance, had too sharp combinations and scored a unanimous 10-round decision over the New York veteran.

There was plenty of blood, some of it being splattered into the press row and near Ross, who took over as Ryff's manager several months ago.

Under the five point must system, Judge John Bray scored the nationally televised bout 47-44, Judge Bill Doty 47-43 and Referee Frank Sikora 45-44. The Associated Press card favored Perkins 48-44.

Each weighed 138 pounds.

Fouts, Summers Lose Appeal to High Court

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court has turned down the appeals of George Fouts, 68, and Virgil (Doc) Summers from their convictions of the $4,500 burglary of the Citizens National Bank of Ansonia, Ohio, in 1946. The refusal of the high court to review their convictions means that Summers, now driving a laundry truck in Kansas City, and Fouts, in a Dayton jail charged with carrying a concealed weapon, will be sent to Leavenworth Penitentiary to begin serving their terms.

Utah Labels Ohio Boys With Delinquency

MANTI, Utah (AP) — Donald Vereshack, 14, and William Henry, 16, both of Mentor-on-the-Lake, Ohio, have been charged with delinquency. The pair were captured after police shot out the tires on their car during a 30-mile chase Monday. District Judge Merrill Hermansen said arrangements have been made for restitution of an estimated $200 damage to a highway patrol car at a roadblock. Police said the chase started when the boys drove away from a filling station without paying for a gas purchase.

Unionist To File Rap Against Chrysler Plant

CLEVELAND (AP)—An unfair labor practices complaint has been filed here against Chrysler Corp. by a union committeeman who says he was fired because of his union activity. The complaint was filed with the regional office of the National Labor Relations Board by Richard Debyns of Cuyahoga Falls. The firing, which the company said was for insubordination, touched off a wildcat strike at the Chrysler stamping plant at Twinsburg.

Official Vote Count Makes Minor Changes

There were minor changes in totals in some cases, but in many instances the figures were unchanged from phone returns on which the board based its unofficial totals.

The official county including a handful of voters from out-of-county residents (other than New Holland) whose children attend Miami Trace schools, show that the Miami Trace operating levy carried by a vote of 2100 to 1990, a pickup of eight favorable votes.

The city school operating levy picked up three votes in the official county to give it a 1975 to 1945 majority.

The official count also slenderized Virtus A. Kruse's majority over Omar (Jim) Schwart for state representative to 86 votes instead of 88 as indicated by unofficial returns.

Cemetery Land Case Postponed

The matter of determining compensation for property sought in the expansion of the Milledgeville-Plymouth Cemetery, scheduled in Common Pleas Court Friday, nas been postponed to a date yet to be determined by the court.

Jurors who had been summoned to appear at 9 a. m. Friday are being notified that they need not report.

Jasper Township trustees brought a friendly action against heirs of the late Valdo R. McCoy to acquire 4.7 acres surrounding the cemetery for expansion purposes. It was learned Thursday that one out-of-state party - defendant to the action had not received proper notice of the hearing.

Big Invasion of Hunters Expected

Pheasant and Rabbit Bombardment To Start Here at 9 a.m. Saturday

Given good weather, hunters by the score will open their annual barrage against pheasants and rabbits here Saturday, the start of the open season on small game.

Most of them will be in the fields by 9 a. m., when they can legally start shooting. They will have to give up at 5 p. m. These are the hours for hunting every day, except Sunday.

Fayette County Game Protector Dave Krupla and Charles Cooper, the district game law enforcement officer with headquarters here, agreed that both pheasants and rabbits are plentiful in the county this year, despite the wet spring and summer. They added, however, that while rabbits were plentiful in some areas and scarce in others last year, there is a "pretty even distribution" of the cottontails all over the county this year.

That there will be a heavy invasion of the county by hunters is evidenced by the reservations at hotels and motels here. All of them reported full houses are expected for the weekend and said that many of hunters, they said, come back year after year; some of them make reservations from one season to the next. They also said some hunters had asked about accommodations for their hunting dogs.

* * *

* * *

BECAUSE the hunting season opens on Saturday this year, the game law enforcement officers predict there will be more hunters in the field than when it opens on a working day.

They expect the bombardment to ease off after Monday and remain relatively light until just before the close of the pheasant season on Dec. 6.

Cooper and Krupla both emphasized that hunters should get written permission of the landowner before entering a field. They pointed out that permission is required, regardless of whether the land is posted.

* * *

THE GAME LAW enforcement officers commented that after paroling the county, they feel that probably more farms are posted against hunting this year than last. Commercial printers supported this belief with statements that they have been doing a big business in "No Hunting" signs.

Cooper said he plans to spend most of his time during the hunting season in Fayette County and Kurpla said he expects to spend little time at his home in Bloomingburg, because he will be on patrol all day and much of the night.

At least two additional enforcement officers have been assigned to the county for the hunting season, Cooper said.

Sheriff Orland Hays said he and his deputies also will be on patrol during the day and much of the night, most of the time with three cars on the byroads.

* * *

FLIGHT AFTER a violation will be difficult, because all of officers will be on a radio hookup. Cooper and Krupla explained that the sheriff's department always cooperates closely with game protectors during hunting season and that arrangements have been made to tie in both agencies on the radio hookup.

The officers said that while they all keep a careful watch for violations of bag limits, the "biggest complaints" come from landowners "who get fed up with hunters tramping over their farms without permission."

The bag limit on pheasants is two each day and four in possession after the first day. On rabbits it is four each day with eight in possession. The limit on partridge is the same as for pheasants, but the game protectors said there are "very few" of them in the county.

Incidentally, the hunting and trapping season on raccoons, possums and skunks opens at 12:01 a. m. Saturday.

Official Vote Count Makes Minor Changes

There were minor changes in totals in some cases, but in many instances the figures were unchanged from phone returns on which the board based its unofficial totals.

The official county including a handful of voters from out-of-county residents (other than New Holland) whose children attend Miami Trace schools, show that the Miami Trace operating levy carried by a vote of 2100 to 1990, a pickup of eight favorable votes.

The city school operating levy picked up three votes in the official county to give it a 1975 to 1945 majority.

The official count also slenderized Virtus A. Kruse's majority over Omar (Jim) Schwart for state representative to 86 votes instead of 88 as indicated by unofficial returns.
